Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Established in 1997, The What to Expect Foundation is a 501(c)3 public operating charity that employs the latest evidence-based strategies in the fields of health, education, literacy and communication to teach healthcare providers how to recognize if their patients do not understand health messages, and to give them tools and training to overcome those obstacles. Our signature program, Baby Basics, helps all types of organizations from state health departments to grassroots community workers, and everyone in between to get moms in need the health information and support they desperately need during this most teachable and pivotal time in a woman's life, her pregnancy.
