Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Urban Doves mission is to help children, starting as young as eight years old, develop into healthy, successful adults who are economically, socially and emotionally independent. We believe that all children, regardless of their economic or social background, should have access to the resources needed to achieve this independence. The reality, however, is that too many children face incredible challenges and lack the opportunities to realize this future. The most significant barriers include high poverty rates, low high school graduation rates, low college enrollment and persistence rates, and high youth unemployment rates. Urban Dove provides support that starts in elementary school and lasts through college and beyond, all with the goal of helping our youth learn and develop the skills and confidence they need to overcome these obstacles. As they achieve their independence, they not only change their own lives, but become agents of lasting change in their families and their communities. While Urban Dove serves youth as young as eight years old, the majority of our programming focuses on youth ages 13-19. Urban Dove works in communities where the number of youth facing challenges is disproportionately high. Our programs are designed to help youth overcome these challenges by identifying their causes and creating interventions that address them. Our program model uses a combination of academics, life skills, job skills and sports to energize, educate and empower youth over many years, building strong, trusting relationships that increase our impact and ensure our outcomes. This year we will deliver services to over 450 at-risk youth. Our programs focus on helping youth achieve meaningful, life-changing, educational outcomes, specifically high school graduation, college enrollment and college graduation. Urban Dove programs are fully inclusive, accepting any and all youth who have an interest in joining, yet we hold all of our youth to the highest standard when it comes to their participation, effort and outcomes. Through support and encouragement from caring adults, we create a safe, positive environment in which our youth learn and develop skills and gain the confidence they need to reach their full potential. To date, 96% of our teenagers have graduated high school, over 96% have gone to college and over 90% have either graduated or remain in college. This fall, Urban Doves charter school, UD Team, was approved for a full 5-year renewal by the New York State Board of Regents. Shortly afterwards, the Board of Regents also approved Urban Doves request to open Urban Dove Team Charter School II, which will launch in the Bronx in 2018. While the renewal of UD Teams charter represents our proven track record of success, approval to open UD Team II in the Bronx is a testament to how this success can, and should be replicated throughout NYC. We look forward to growing the Urban Dove family in the years to come. Some highlights from the 2016-2017 program year include: 86% of teenagers returned for the following year; 100% of seniors graduated high school and enrolled in college; 94% of seniors enrolled in college; 100% of juniors took the SAT exam; 90% increased their score by an average of 74 points. Over 90% of college-enrolled freshmen completed their freshman year of college. Overall, over 90% of college-enrolled Alumni remain in college. Urban Dove employed 80 teenagers in summer 2016, earning over $90,000 as a group.
