| PART I, LINE 2 | All grants of financial aid or merit scholarships are allocated by discounting the nominal tuition by the amount of the aid or scholarship. Therefore, no cash is given, but rather, for example, a student who would otherwise pay, say, $30,000 receives financial aid of $10,000 and therefore pays $20,000. All grants of financial aid are decided by LREI's Tuition Remission Committee and are based on an objective determination of financial need. The amount of any financial aid or scholarship is documented in the enrollment contract and both tuition and financial aid are entered into our accounts receivable module so that we can track the net amount that must be paid by a particular student. |

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

| Return Reference | Explanation |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4a | At LREI (Little Red School House & Elisabeth Irwin High School) we understand that students learn best when they are engaged. Our 14 year progressive program is rooted in a fundamental love of learning and a connection to the real world. Our teachers, experts in their fields, encourage children to use their curiosity, compassion and imagination to think deeply and to participate in finding solutions to real problems. We understand that the world around us particularly our ever-vibrant home, New York City is the best place to learn. You will find our students asking questions about green design at the High Line, filming a documentary on Coney Islands boardwalk and volunteering at the local food pantry we've partnered with for years. We provide a rich and challenging progressive program for bright, inquisitive students who bring a range of abilities and interests to their collective study of the world. Our school is a community built on understanding and respect for others. Like New York City, this community is diverse in every sense, with a variety of family structures and beliefs, as well as other, more familiar definitions of diversity (racial, ethnic, socio-economic, religious). Our interdisciplinary curriculum and school-wide social justice initiatives promote understanding of many cultures. As individual achievement is encouraged and rewarded, our program underscores the value of shared goals and cooperation in mastering difficult tasks. By the time LREI students graduate, they are ready to make their marks on their university campuses because they have learned to be active citizens in their school, city and global communities. |
