Schedule D, Part X, Line 1	NYSA-ILA and NYSA-PPGU Liabilities are contractual liabilities to benefit funds such as Pension, Vacation & Holiday, and Welfare Funds

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Association follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can only be recognized in the consolidated financial statements if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	As per New York Shipping Association, Inc. policy, the President (and spouse, if applicable) is entitled to travel via First and Business Class when attending industry related functions. Also, companion travel is permitted for officers when travelling to certain industry functions. As per employment agreement with current President of the Association, the Association reimburses the President for certain country club dues on an annual basis.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The Association undertakes a thorough process to ensure that the executive compensation it pays to its top management official and all of its officers and key employees of the Association is reasonable given the market in which the Association operates. In relevant part, the Board of Directors has established a compensation committee of independent persons that have no personal interest in the proposed compensation agreement. The compensation committee will then set the compensation for the relevant executive.
Schedule J, Part II	Amounts reported in Schedule J Part II Column C Deferred Compensation reflect the change in the Actuarial Value of the individual's Defined Benefit Plan.
