Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)	All families are welcome annually to apply for tuition assistance which is processed through TADS, which is an online tuition and financial aid assessment service. TADS compiles each applicants financial data and, based on their benchmarks, provides recommended tuition amounts for eligible families. The Organization has a committee that oversees and reviews tuition assistance and is comprised of the Head of School, Admissions Director, Development Director and School Registrar. Based on their analysis the committee adjusts TADs tuition assistance recommendations accordingly. After the committees review the school registrar proceeds and informs the families through their written tuition contracts.
