Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Catholic Health Initiatives ("CHI") has a Conflicts of Interest ("COI") policy (the "Polic y") in place to maintain the integrity of all of its activities. The Policy applies to CHI Board of Stewardship Trustees and members of its committees, all CHI Entity board and board committee members, all CHI employees, and all CHI research personnel (both employed and non-employed). Disclosure, review and management of perceived, potential or actual conflicts of interest are accomplished through a defined COI disclosure process. Each Person must promptly and fully disclose to his/her direct manager, supervisor, medical staff office, board or board committee chair any situation or circumstance that may create a conflict of interest. The Person must disclose the actual or potential conflict as soon as she/he be comes aware of it. In any situation where the Person may be in doubt, a full disclosure should be made to permit an impartial and objective determination. In addition to the general ongoing obligation, there are initial disclosure obligations. At the time of initial app ointment, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to the board or committee member along with a conflict of interest disclosure. The board or committee member will complete and submit the disclosure. The completed disclosure shall be maintained in confidence and access shall be limited to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. At the time of hiring, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to all Employees. In addition, a con flict of interest disclosure will be provided. The Employee must complete and submit a con flict of interest disclosure. The completed disclosure shall be maintained in confidence and access shall be limited to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. In addition to the general ongoing and initial disclosure obligations, there is an annual disclosure obligation. On an annual basis, the following Persons must complete a new conflict of interest disclosure. *Board and board committee members,

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Is the ultimate decision-maker or holds significant influence over the ultimate decision-maker (i.e., degree of independence of the decision-making process), the unique nature of the opportunity, transaction or arrangement, the existence of other viable alternatives and the quality of those alternatives, and what is customary and reasonable in the health care or research industry. When a Person has, or is considering initiating, a business inter est or relationship outside of CHI but is uncertain whether the interest constitutes a con flict of interest requiring disclosure under this Policy, the Person should consult with I local Corporate Responsibility Program (CRP) staff or CHI Legal Services Group (LSG) staff, as appropriate. As appropriate, a COI management plan will be developed. With respect to those audiences for which the C-CIRC has review responsibility, the C-CIRC will facilitate development of any such COI management plan in collaboration with local CRP staff or CHI LSG staff, as appropriate. This plan will include documentation of the C-CIRC's determinations and recommendations. As necessary, reports to an appropriate governmental agency or significant will be made according to the relevant appendices to this Policy to provide required information regarding how the conflict of interest will be managed, reduced, or eliminated. Designated CHI Entity staff are responsible for monitoring the COI management plan and for documenting monitoring activities. At its sole discretion, a CHI Entity may reject a Person's request to enter into the relationship in question, or require the relationship be sufficiently altered to avoid a potential conflict of interest. The C-CIRC will determine whether a disclosed or otherwise identified interest is a conflict of interest. If the C-CIRC determines that a potential or actual conflict of interest exists that does not currently have appropriate confricts to address the conflict of interest, it may recommend that the disclosing Person be allowed to participate in the ac
