Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

See Schedule O Southern Sector Health Initiative (SSHI) is organized to improve care for people with chronic conditions, including diabetes, by operating a new care model focused on health care, education and research in South Dallas. SSHI operates and maintains the Baylor Scott & White Health and Wellness Center (BSW HWC) (formerly known as the Diabetes Health and Wellness Institute) at the Juanita J. Craft Recreation Center in southern Dallas where the residents have the highest rates of chronic disease, poverty, underinsured and uninsured. BSW HWC is the area's first and only diabetes health and wellness facility addressing the region's health care needs relative to chronic disease management, including diabetes management, specifically for the underserved and underinsured. As a collaborative effort between Baylor Scott & White Health and the City of Dallas, the goal of BSW HWC is to weave chronic disease and management into the fabric of the community so that it is a natural and convenient part of life in the neighborhood. SSHI is affiliated with Baylor Scott & White Health (BSWH), a faith-based nationally acclaimed network of acute care hospitals and related health care entities providing quality patient care, medical education, medical research and other community services to the residents of North and Central Texas. As the largest not-for-profit health care system in Texas and one of the largest in the United States, BSWH was born from the 2013 combination of Baylor Health Care System and Scott & White Healthcare. Today, BSWH includes 50 hospitals, over 1,000 patient care sites, approximately 7,500 active physicians, more than 49,000 employees and the Scott & White Health Plan. In seeking opportunities to serve this community, BSWH acknowledged the rising need for comprehensive healthcare in southern Dallas, where health disparities are high and residents struggle economically compared to the rest of Dallas County. As stated in its Mission Statement "Founded as a Christian Ministry of healing, Baylor Scott & White Health promotes the well-being of all individuals, families and communities. The Ambition Statement is "to be the trusted leader, educator, and innovator in value-based care delivery, customer experience and affordability". BSW HWC is built on four fundamental principles: collaborative financial support and governance; integration of social, cultural, political and economic initiatives; clinical care in the neighborhood; and community-based, multidisciplinary research. Existing resources are leveraged in order to prevent and treat chronic disease, incorporating four core competences: 1) prevent the onset of chronic disease, including diabetes, by offering physical activity classes, nutrition and cooking classes, wellness education, and primary care; 2) identify and treat asymptomatic people who have risk factors for developing chronic diseases including diabetes or who have pre-diabetes, with the goal of helping people reduce their risk of complications, reduce their health care costs, minimize hospital visits, and reduce lost work or school time; 3) care for people who have chronic conditions by helping them regain their highest functional level, minimize the negative effects of the disease, and prevent complications; and 4) measure the impact and outcomes of this unique health care delivery model. BSW HWC provides an integrative care model including an on-site physician and nurse practitioner, visiting medical specialists, referral coordinators for specialty and ancillary care, diabetes management educators, access to affordable chronic disease and diabetes medications, nutrition and healthy cooking classes and physical activity programs including aerobics, walking clinics and weight training. The efforts already have paid huge dividends for this underserved population. More than 6,951 community members have participated in BSW HWC programs. In the face of adversity, progress is being made. A 2015 analysis showed a 21% reduction in emergency room use among a sample of BSW HWC members using a pre and post enrollment comparison. Additionally, a 37% reduction was shown for inpatient visits among a sample of BSW HWC members using the same pre and post enrollment comparison and the data was published in Health Affairs. To increase its impact in the community, including special events, BSW HWC has a robust outreach program where its cumulative outreach encounters reached 98,843 by 2019. The BSW HWC also enlists the assistance of Community Health Workers also known as Diabetes PEERS (Prevention, Empowerment, Education, Resources, Support) program, a program initially funded through a grant from Sanofi. With twelve full-time and 30 part-time staff members certified by the State of Texas as CHW Instructors, the BSW HWC is able to offer 160-hour fee-based Community Health Worker Training and Certification courses, as well as CHW Instructor training and CHW Continuing Education Units (CEUs). The training programs are approved by the Texas Department of State Health Services and are offered to interested residents of the community. The role of a Community Health Worker is defined as a member of the local community who acts as a mediator between health care and social services and the community to assist with a range of activities such as outreach, patient navigation and follow-up, community health education and information, informal counseling, social support, advocacy and participation in clinical research. The Diabetes PEERS program allows the BSW HWC to tackle the myths about chronic diseases including diabetes and to provide needed education and support in the prevention and management of chronic disease in the high-risk communities of southern Dallas. These individuals and the BSW HWC Ministerial Advisory Board have also been instrumental in helping the staff connect with pastors and church leaders at over 50 churches in the surrounding zip codes. The BSW HWC has expanded to nine Farm Stands offering fresh fruits and vegetables at low-cost to residents of the community to address the lack of local healthy food options. Poor food access is a major contributor to health disparities, disproportionately high rates of disease, and other health problems among low-income communities. People who live in a neighborhood without access to grocery stores are less likely to have healthy diets, increasing their risk of diet-related diseases. The community surrounding the BSW HWC does not have a chain grocery store within a 1-mile radius and the only other food suppliers are small corner stores, gas stations, etc. The BSW HWC's Farm Stand offers pre-bagged produce items as well as healthy recipes with tasting samples to patrons using produce sold at the weekly Farm Stands with the goal of promoting healthy cooking and eating at home. Two of the Farm Stands located at churches in partnership with BSW HWC also have demonstration gardens to educate youth about planting, cultivating, and processing freshly grown produce to support the curriculum of the Junior Master Gardener. Merchant sales (credit, debit, food stamps) across all nine Farm Stands account for 30 percent of weekly sales, 5 percent of which is attributable to SNAP benefits. There are typically 200 or more people who purchase fresh produce weekly from the Farm Stands. In 2019 the Farm stands had 35,545 visits. A 2019 cumulative snapshot of wellness, prevention, nutrition and physical activity programs includes: 35,545, Farm Stand Visits, 32,981 Fitness Class Encounters, 3,581 Nutrition Class Encounters, 2,610 Bible Study Encounters, 695 Medical Nutrition Therapy(MNT) Encounters, 267 CHW program graduates and 3,294 Diabetes Prevention Program Encounters and 2,412 Diabetes Self-Management Education and Support Encounters. BSW HWC is among the few programs in Texas fully recognized by the Centers for Disease Control for its Diabetes Prevention Programs. In addition to this recognition, BSW HWC has received national and local awards including the Healthcare Leadership Council's Wellness Frontiers Award for its public-private partnership with the City of Dallas; the American Hospital Associations' Nova Award for community-based innovation; and the D CEO Magazines' Excellence in Healthcare Achievement in Community Outreach, The Morehouse School of Medicine, National Center for Primary Care Partnership for Diabetes Health Equity Award. BSW HWC has established itself as an incubator for population health with a goal to improve the health of the city one person, one family, and one community at a time.

Part I, Line 1a	Tax indemnification and gross-up payments-The organization provides tax indemnification where the BSW Holdings' CEO, COO or CFO determines there is justification to reimburse an individual for the tax impact on certain taxable, non-cash benefits provided to them. All tax indemnification payments provided are treated as taxable compensation. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year. Discretionary spending account-The organization provides eligible employees who travel frequently in their personal vehicle an auto expense allowance in lieu of reimbursement for business mileage under the organization's business travel and expense reimbursement policy. All auto expense allowances are treated as taxable compensation. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year. Health or social club dues or initiation fees-The organization may reimburse eligible employees for dues for a health club and/or a social club where there is a bona fide business need for the membership. For example, as part of the organization's promotion of health, the organization will cover a portion of any employees' fitness center club membership dues paid to an affiliated entity that owns and operates a fitness center. All employees are eligible for this benefit. Such reimbursements are treated as taxable compensation to the extent any part of the membership is used for personal use. Two of the persons listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	Process for determining compensation: The organization, a controlled affiliate of BSW Holdings, recognizes that those chosen to lead the organization are vital to its ongoing success and growth. Thus, it must attract, retain and engage the highest quality officers and key employees to lead the organization and help the organization maintain its national reputation for achieving high targets for medical quality, patient safety, and patient satisfaction. A significant portion of the organization's officers and key employees' total compensation is based on significant performance achievements. This strategy places a greater emphasis on the importance of the organization achieving targeted improvements in the areas of people, quality, patient satisfaction and financial stewardship, annually. Total executive compensation is part of an integrated talent management strategy developed by the BSW Holdings Board of Trustees and its Compensation Committee to attract, motivate, and retain the best leadership resources for the organization. Executive compensation is determined pursuant to guidelines outlined in the intermediate sanction rules under IRC Section 4958 including taking steps to meet the rebuttable presumption standard of reasonableness under Treasury Regulation 53.4958-6, as summarized below. When making compensation decisions, the organization compares itself to similarly-sized, and structured businesses including other integrated health care service systems and other similarly-sized organizations, both locally and nationally. Each year the BSW Holdings Board of Trustees and the Compensation Committee, on behalf of the organization through reserved powers held by BSW Holdings, works directly with an independent compensation expert(s) to identify reasonable and competitive market rates as well as provide an annual review of the total compensation of the organization's top management officials and other officers and key employees to ensure total compensation is within a fair market range. The annual review included management reviewing all officers and key employees listed on the Form 990 during the current tax year. Any individual whose direct compensation exceeded the projected compensation from prior year, any new individual whose position has not been reviewed by the Compensation Committee during the prior 2 years, or any individual whose responsibilities or scope of operations expanded during the current year were reviewed by the Compensation Committee during the current tax year. The Compensation Committee is made up of members of the BSW Holdings Board of Trustees, who are independent, community volunteers. Guided by the information provided by the independent compensation expert(s), the Compensation Committee approves the annual process and methodology for setting fair market salary ranges, earned incentives, and/or benefit offerings for the organization's President, other officers and/or key employees to be comparable to similar organizations for similar services and/or positions. Furthermore, the Compensation Committee is charged with the responsibility of reviewing annually the major elements of the executive compensation program to assure designs remain consistent with the business needs, market practices, and compensation philosophy. As part of the decision making process, the Compensation Committee will often meet in executive session to discuss and review recommendations made by the independent compensation expert(s). No officer or key employee whose compensation is being reviewed is present during these discussions. All decisions are properly documented in the minutes of the meetings.

Payout targets are based upon a percentage of base pay and are developed by independent third party expert(s) using comparable market competitive data within the bounds of reasonableness and that are reviewed and approved by BSW Holdings' governing body. Payout levels are based upon a combination of system, entity, and individual performance using various metrics related to quality, patient satisfaction, employee retention, and financial stewardship. BSW Holdings' governing body may approve modifications to annual incentive awards provided under the program consistent with market comparability data.
