Form 990, Part III, Line 4a Community Benefit Narrative	In fiscal year 2019, CHI Health Connect at Home-Fargo's total community benefit was $329,578 serving 6,374 people, of which $165,074 of unpaid costs serving 77 patients participating in ND and MN state Medicaid programs. During FY19 we discontinued operational and revenue cycle management for the home health/hospice in Pendleton and due to constant NPSR and significantly less non patient revenues, with a slight increase in overall expenses, EBIDA for the year ended at only a positive $18K, down from plan, yet expect EBIDA to be higher in FY20 and achieve budget. CHI Health Connect at Home-Fargo has been in operations as a stand-alone home health & hospice business for 8 and half years, originally starting with 10 separate agency locations across ND, MN and SD. Of those 10, 4 were consolidated into 1, 1 was sold along with their hospital, 1 returned to operate with their hospital and in FY16, we added the Bismarck home health and hospice that was previously part of the St. Alexis Medical Center. We currently have a total of 6 agencies, 2 in MN (Albany and Breckenridge) and 4 in ND (Dickinson, Williston, Valley City & Bismarck). With the addition of Bismarck, we now serve more than 1/2 of the entire state of North Dakota. For FY19, we reported community benefit and served under the state Medicaid programs in all 6 locations. Most of the remaining community benefit offered from all locations was for bereavement and grief support groups for hospice, education to nursing students as well as varied types of community education such as participating in health fair events, speaking engagements, etc. We donated $2K to the Indigenous Peoples Hospital in the Philippines for the 2nd year in a row and hope to be able to continue to do this annually. We also expanded our business offerings in FY19 to include community based palliative care services in Williston in October 2019, as well as in Valley City and Dickinson during Q4. Palliative care is treatment aimed at relieving symptoms associated with serious illnesses to help improve the patient's quality of life. We offer these services with no current reimbursement and will begin offering at our other locations in FY20. Our business offerings are home health, hospice and now palliative care and we continue to operate almost entirely in rural ND and MN, serving patients who live in small communities and reside perhaps dozens of miles from the closest healthcare facility. Our responsibility to these small communities and its citizens to make sure they are aware of our services and how they can help improve their health is fundamental in how we carry out the Mission, Vision and Values of Catholic Health Initiatives with our work. CHI Health Connect at Home-Fargo is a nonprofit, tax exempt facility that takes all necessary measures to be compliant with all legislation in healthcare in determining what to report, how to report, as well as focusing on what each individual community may need. In the case of board or committee members or officers, issues are elevated to the executive committee of the board or board chair. II. In the case of other persons, conflicts issues are elevated to the conflicts of interest review committee ("C-CIRC"). C. Conflicts determination and management: 1. Matters elevated to C-CIRC: a) The C-CIRC determines whether a disclosed or otherwise identified interest is a conflict of interest. If the C-CIRC determines that a COI exists, and adequate controls are not in place to mitigate the conflict, the C-CIRC facilitates development of a COI management plan designed to mitigate the conflict. Designated entity staff are responsible for monitoring the COI management plan and for documenting monitoring activities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at its sole discretion, an entity may reject a person's request to enter into the relationship in question, or require the relationship be sufficiently altered to avoid a potential conflict of interest. b) Appeal - if a person does not agree with a determination made by the C-CIRC, its interpretation of the COI policy, still seeks an exemption or exception, or seeks further clarification of the C-CIRC's decision, the individual may appeal the decision through his or her manager for reconsideration by the C-CIRC, and the C-CIRC will review and issue a final determination based upon any new or additional information presented. 2. Matters elevated to the executive committee or board chair: a) Determination of existence of conflict - the board chair or his or her designee performs any further investigation of any conflict of interest disclosures as he or she may deem appropriate. If the conflict involves the board chair, the vice chair assumes the chair's role outlined in the COI policy. Based on review and evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances, the board chair makes an initial determination as to whether a conflict of interest exists and whether, pursuant to the COI policy, review and approval or other action by the board is required. A written record of the board chair's determination, including relevant facts and circumstances, is made. The board chair then makes an appropriate report to the executive committee of the board concerning the COI review, evaluation and determination. If a difference of opinion exists between the board chair and another trustee as to whether the facts and circumstances of a given situation constitute a conflict of interest or whether board review and approval or other action is required under the COI policy, the matter is submitted to the board's executive committee, which makes a final determination as to the matter presented. That determination, including relevant facts and circumstances, is reflected in the executive committee minutes and is reported to the board. b) Board evaluation of transactions involving an officer / board member conflict of interest -

The board must approve the transaction by a majority of the trustees on the board (not counting any interested trustee). In reviewing such transactions between CHI or CHI entities and vendors or other contractors who are, or are affiliated with, trustees or corporate officers, the board acts no more or less favorably than it would in reviewing transactions with unrelated third parties. The board carefully reviews and scrutinizes any non-transactional conflict of interest (e.g., disclosure of nonpublic information, competition with CHI or a CHI entity, failure to disclose a corporate opportunity, excessive gifts or entertainment, etc.). II. In such circumstances, by a majority vote of the disinterested trustees, the board takes whatever action is deemed appropriate with respect to the trustee or corporate officer under the circumstances (including possible disciplinary or corrective action) to best protect the interests of CHI or the CHI entity. The board is encouraged to consult with the general counsel of CHI or his or her designee when considering disciplinary or corrective action. III. CHI had a defined compensation philosophy. Both the executive and non-executive compensation structures and ranges were reviewed annually in comparison to market data. Catholic Health Initiatives used Korn Ferry as the independent third party to assess executive compensation programs and to ensure the reasonableness of actual salaries and total compensation packages. Compensation of the senior most executives was reviewed annually. Korn Ferry reviewed both cash and total compensation for overall reasonableness, for adherence to Catholic Health Initiatives' compensation philosophy, and for comparability to the not-for-profit healthcare market. This independent review was delivered by Korn Ferry to the CHI HR committee of the Board of Stewardship Trustees annually at their September meeting and minutes shared with the full board at the December meeting. The last review was September 25, 2018. In addition, Korn Ferry completed a comprehensive review of all positions at the level of vice president and above in the fall of 2014 to determine and validate appropriate compensation levels. These levels were reviewed annually and revised based on market data, where applicable.

Through February 7, 2019, conflicts were administered solely through Catholic Health Initiatives' ("CHI") Governance Policy No. 1 (described below). On February 8, 2019, in connection with the alignment of the Catholic Health Ministries of CHI and Dignity Health, the CommonSpirit Health Board of Stewardship Trustees approved CommonSpirit Health Corporate Responsibility Policy No. G-001, a CommonSpirit Health conflicts of interest policy. This policy stipulates that, at minimum, the pre-closing CHI COI policies and pre-closing Dignity Health COI policies identify the individuals that are covered under the new policy. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, pre-closing CHI COI policies shall continue to apply to the CHI entities and the individuals who were subject to the Pre-Closing CHI COI policies; and the Pre-Closing Dignity Health COI policies shall continue to apply to the Dignity Health entities and the individuals who were subject to the Pre-Closing Dignity Health COI policies.
