Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

FUSE Corps is a national nonprofit with a mission to enable local government to more effectively address the biggest challenges facing urban communities. Our approach centers around an executive fellowship program that places experienced leaders in government agencies to help lead high-impact strategic projects. We work with cities and counties on a range of issues, including economic and workforce development, healthcare, public safety, climate change, and education, among others. Since 2012, FUSE has placed over 150 fellowships in 25 governments around the country.

Additional Supplemental Information	FUSE has a thorough screening process that includes defining the specific needs of each role with our host agencies, evaluating all applications, conducting a series of interviews with the strongest candidates, and allowing our host agencies to make the final selection of their fellow from among a few finalists for each role
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The organization monitors each fellowship's progress throughout the year, including regular check-in calls with both fellows and their host agency leaders. Fellows also participate in three, in-person, national gatherings during the year and they have access to an executive coach and a robust alumni community. Structured evaluations are conducted at mid-year and the end of the fellowship year to assess impact.
