Provide the following information.

- 1 Required descriptions. Provide the descriptions required for Part I, lines 3c, 6a, and 7; Part II and Part III, lines 2, 3, 4, 8 and 9b.
- 2 Needs assessment. Describe how the organization assesses the health care needs of the communities it serves, in addition to any CHNAs reported in Part V, Section B.
- 3 Patient education of eligibility for assistance. Describe how the organization informs and educates patients and persons who may be billed for patient care about their eligibility for assistance under federal, state, or local government programs or under the organization's financial assistance policy.
- 4 Community information. Describe the community the organization serves, taking into account the geographic area and demographic constituents it serves.
- 5 Promotion of community health. Provide any other information important to describing how the organization's hospital facilities or other health care facilities further its exempt purpose by promoting the health of the community (e.g., open medical staff, community board, use of surplus funds, etc.).
- 6 Affiliated health care system. If the organization is part of an affiliated health care system, describe the respective roles of the organization and its affiliates in promoting the health of the communities served.
- 7 State filing of community benefit report. If applicable, identify all states with which the organization, or a related organization, files a community benefit report.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 6a:	The organization provides an annual community benefit report that is made available to the public.
Part I, Line 7:	Charity care is calculated using a cost to charge ratio following the methodology of Worksheet 2. Medical costs are calculated using a cost accounting system that addresses all patient segments. Community health improvement services are calculated on the basis of direct expenditures. Health professions education is calculated based on the Medicare cost report. Subsidized health services is calculated based on the non-Medicare, Medicaid and charity care proportion of departmental losses for the specific programs. Cash and in-kind contributions are calculated on the basis of direct expenditures.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 7g:	Subsidized health services represent the non-needs based and non-Medicare program losses of services the hospital offers.
Part III, Line 2:	The provision for bad debts is based upon management's assessment of historical and expected net collections considering historical business and economic conditions, trends in health care coverage, and other collection indicators.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 3:	An industry average was used to estimate this amount. It was not included as part of community benefit.
Part III, Line 4:	Bad Debt footnote extract:Implicit price concessions represent differences between amounts billed and the estimated consideration the Network expects to receive from patients, which are determined based on historical collection experience, current market conditions, and other factors.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 8:	The costing methodology used to determine Medicare costs is the Medicare cost report. Medicare costs have not been included in community benefit in Part I.
Part III, Line 9b:	Financial counselors work out a payment program for any amount due after the Charity Sliding Scale Discounts are applied. Collection procedures consistent with self-pay accounts are applied to these balances.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Line 2:	Grandview, as part of Kettering Health Network, has dedicated an entire department to community health and wellness. The Community Outreach Department is comprised of coordinators who develop programs, screenings and other health related events. The department also has fitness specialists, nurses, dietitians, massage and behavioral therapists, a communication specialist, health coaches, a physician medical director, a full service call center, and many other resource personnel.
Part VI, Line 3:	Grandview informs and educates patients or persons who may be billed for patient care about their eligibility for assistance under federal, state or local government programs or under Grandview's charity care policy as follows:-Grandview has a financial assistance brochure that is included in all of the patient information kits given at the time of intake or registration into any facility or department.-There is information posted in all of the admitting and registration areas about charity care and financial assistance.-During the registration process there is specific scripting to ask patients if they would like to disclose family size and income to screen them for federal/state/local and hospital based charity/assistance programs. This data is available for future visits as well.-Grandview has the reporting capability to review and screen any patient who may have been admitted during registration "off hours" for eligibility and assistance.-Grandview contracts with an outside agency for patient assistance in the application process.-The back of the patient statement shows the current and prior year Federal Poverty Guidelines and has the Financial Assistance Form to complete and mail in for consideration for Grandview's HCAP or Charity Sliding Scale program.-Grandview's patient account representatives in customer service screen patients that are unable to pay their bill for the various financial assistance programs.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Line 4:	KHN serves a population of approximately 1,574,000. The seven-county service area includes Butler, Clark, Greene, Miami, Montgomery, Preble, and Warren counties. Eighteen zip codes within this service area received a Community Need Index score of 3.4 or greater. The Community Need Index identifies the severity of healthcare disparities based upon certain barriers known to limit healthcare access. A score of 1.0 indicates a zip code with the lowest socio-economic barriers (low need), while a score of 5.0 represents a zip code with the most socio-economic barriers (high need).
Part VI, Line 5:	Grandview furthers its exempt purpose by promoting the health of the community by:-Retaining a Board of Directors with a majority (excluding employees and contractors) living in the primary service area;-Extending medical staff privileges to all qualified physicians in its community for a majority of its departments;-Utilizing surplus funds to help support ongoing improvements in patient care through equipment upgrades, acquisition of the most advanced medical technology, upgrades of existing hospital structures, and construction of new facilities in order to provide accessible, efficient, quality care. -Providing a nationally-recognized osteopathic teaching program.-Supporting medical research through the Innovation Center, cultivating new technologies and fostering best practices among partners from industry, academia, and health care.

990 Schedule H, Supplemental Information

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Line 6:	Grandview and its affiliates promote the health of the communities served by the system as described below:-Grandview, a part of the Kettering Health Network, is dedicated to the creation and maintenance of community wellness programs, support groups and health education programs. Grandview provides numerous screenings, family-focused classes, health fairs, conferences, donations, and education programs to ensure the long-term wellbeing of people living in the community.-Grandview provides a teaching program for osteopathic physicians.-The Grandview Foundation is the philanthropic arm of Grandview Medical Center and supports the education of future osteopathic physicians.-Kettering Affiliated Health Services, Inc includes Sycamore Glen Health Center and Sycamore Glen Retirement Community. These healthcare areas provide services to the surrounding communities which complement those services provided by Grandview as part of the Kettering Health Network.-Medical research is supported through the Innovation Center, which cultivates new technologies and fosters best practices among partners from industry, academia, and health care.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	Compensation is established by a related organization. The process of determining compensation of CEO's, executive directors, officers, and key employees is to have an independent board approve the compensation. The compensation is determined to be reasonable compared to independent comparability data. The approval of the amounts is documented in the Board minutes within the appropriate time frame. At year end the organization reviews executive compensation by comparing the amounts approved to the amounts paid.
Part I, Line 4b	The Network has a supplemental executive retirement plan available only to a certain class of management.
Part II, Col Biii	Column Biii includes compensation reported on the W-2 that may or may not have gone through the current year Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.
