Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Companion travel is permitted for those activities where the presence of the companion enhances the fellowship aspect of the fraternal system. Tax indemnification and Gross-up Payments - Gross-up payments for taxable use of company cars were completed for three officers in 2017. In addition, a gross-up payment was completed for the president because the board of directors gifted his company car to him for his retirement. Gross-up payments for education bonuses for classes taken through Life Office Management Association were completed for one officer in 2017. All gross-up payments were treated as taxable compensation.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1b	All expenses are reviewed by an officer of the Society and limited to those necessary for the travel to and from the event and reasonable meal expenses while at the event.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	A board appointed compensation committee annually reviews the compensation of the CEO along with the other officers of the organization. Outside salary surveys of similar fraternal benefit societies, data concerning similar positions in the area, the performance and financial status of the society, general cost of living/inflation increases, and general economic conditions are taken into consideration. The recommendations of the compensation committee are then considered by the full board of directors and are either approved or modified.
