Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Instruction Consistently ranked among the top 100 colleges and universities nationwide, Marquette annually enrolls more than 11,300 students in undergraduate, graduate and professional programs and confers approximately 2,800 degrees annually Marquette offers 82 undergraduate majors and 78 minors to students in the College of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Communication, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Nursing Marquettes graduate and professional programs offer 65 doctoral and masters degree programs, 21 graduate certificate programs, and a School of Dentistry and Law School The Graduate School of Management has nationally ranked MBA programs as well as specialty masters programs in several business areas Marquette has Wisconsins only School of Dentistry and one of only two law schools in the state

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b: Student Services We know that learning occurs outside, as well as inside, the classroom. Our core values of excellence, faith, leadership and service are fostered through student participation in our residence hall communities and campus organizations, which include academic and professional groups, club and recreational sports, spiritual activities and community service organizations. Marquettes urban location, just blocks from downtown Milwaukee, gives students ample opportunities for internships, co-op experiences and part-time employment. On campus, professionals in the Office of Student Affairs, Student Health Service, Counseling Center and Campus Ministry, as well as faculty and other staff, help students as they navigate the challenges of young adult life. Marguette also has an Educational Opportunity Program, which provides academic opportunity and support to first-generation college students, students from under-represented groups or ethnicities and students from low-income families

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c: Academic Support All Marquette undergraduates receive a strong liberal arts foundation through the universitys Core of Common Studies, which includes courses in nine core knowledge areas Curriculum development is an ongoing process, with faculty support available through the Center for Teaching and Learning and various departmental resources Programs for faculty development include curriculum enhancement and diversity grants, teaching enhancement awards, fellowship awards for research, young scholar awards and summer faculty fellowships. The Preparing Future Faculty Program encourages the development of graduate students for the multiple roles they will face

as faculty members

III 1a	The university has various collections of fine arts and rare books in museums, libraries a nd on loan. The university does not assign or record a value to art works and other collections received as gifts or purchased with contributions restricted for that purpose. Valua tions for some collections are updated periodically, and as such, the total value of all fine arts may vary with apapraisals and/or auction prices. Accordingly, the value of fine a rt and other collections has been excluded from the statements of financial position. Proceeds, if any, from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The art and other collections are subject to a requirement that proceeds from their sales be used to acquire other items for collections. Fine arts a re included in insurance coverage for the university property and a separate policy is als o secured for fine art of high value and where appraised values are listed. As of June 30, 2018, the specific policy covering high valued works provides for insured coverage of 82, 000,000 aggregate limit subject to policy sublimits, including 3,000,000 for Joan of Arc C hapel for any one loss or any one occurrence and includes some appraised items from the library collections.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1	Faith As a Catholic university, we are committed to the unfettered pursuit of truth under the mutually illuminating powers of human intelligence and Christian faith. Our Catholic is dentity is expressed in our choices of curricula, our sponsorship of programs and activities devoted to the cultivation of our religious character, our ecumenical outlook, and our support of Catholic beliefs and values. Precisely because Catholicism at its best seeks to be inclusive, we are open to all who share our mission and seek the truth about God and the world, and we are firmly committed to academic freedom as the necessary precondition for that search. We welcome and benefit enormously from the diversity of seekers within our ranks, even as we freely choose and celebrate our own Catholic identity.
