Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Employees in programs that monitor the usage of expended grant dollars know the budgeted amounts involved that they have accessible to them. When an individual seeks to obtain assistance, that person must go through an intake process where information is gathered and documented. If assistance is needed again in the same month, the situation that caused the emergency is noted. Program personnel keep track of the expenditures on an on-going basis so that the annual budget is not exceeded.
