Families must meet eligibility criteria and enroll in child care programs participating in Parent Aware. Line 2: Child Care Assistance to Low-Income Families: Child Care Choices(CCC) provides child care financial assistance to low-income families. CCC enrolls child care providers into the CACFP who have proof of license on file with the Minnesota Department of Human Services. CCC is required to make periodic unannounced visits to providers' homes to verify that their records are up to date, that food served qualifies for reimbursement, and that children are present. CCC also contacts parents of children periodically to verify that their children were in child care with the providers who are on the program. If any providers' records are incomplete, or if a child cannot be verified to have been in the providers' care, then CCC is required to reduce the amount paid on a current meal claim or recover the amount from a previous meal claim. During the Covid-19 pandemic the Governor of Minnesota declared a stay safe emergency beginning in March 2020 that was still in effect through CCC's fiscal year end.
