The conflict of interest policy is included in the employee handbook which is given to all new hires who sign that they have reviewed and understand all policies and expectations contained in the handbook. Supervisors and management ensure adherence to the policy. If violations are suspected, staff can use an anonymous reporting phone line (Red Flag reporting) operated by a third-party service to report suspected violations. The third-party operator submits all reported items to Corporate HR for follow-up. There is also a conflict of interest policy for the Board which is reviewed and signed annually. Board members are required to self-disclose conflicts. If a board member becomes aware of a potential conflict, it is discussed with the chairperson. If a conflict of interest exists, the board member is expected to recuse him/herself from the vote on any item that would represent a conflict.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The organization does not have compensation expense, all individuals are compensated by Nexus, a related organization. Nexus has an established compensation philosophy approved by its Board of Directors. Current practice for executive compensation is to utilize an outside consulting firm every three years to price all executive positions to the marketplace and establish new salary ranges which are approved by its Board of Directors. Merit reviews are conducted annually and corresponding merit increases are determined by its Board of Directors.
