Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part II, Community Building Activities	Economic Development Mercy works with such groups as the Iowa City Area Chamber of Commerce and Iowa City Area Development Group to support the business community, welcome innovation to the area, and develop the workforce. It began construction of a new 40-bed Mercy Inpatient Rehabilitation Hospital that will employ approximately 100 health care professionals. Its anticipated completion is May, 2020. Community Support Mercy has provided support to United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties for more than 30 years. Mercy also supports financially and with colleague time, community agencies such as Iowa City Hospice, Free Medical Clinic, NAMI (National Alliance for the Mentally Ill), American Cancer Society, School-Based Health Clinics now located in four of the Iowa City Community School Districts public schools (another opened at City High School in August), and so on. Mercy also provides staff to provide first aid at community festivals such as Arts Fest, Jazz Fest and Soul Fest, and at the Johnson County Fair. In FY2019, Mercy signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Rural Health and Safety of Eastern Iowa to partner in their efforts to increase health care outreach and reduce injury prevention in the agricultural areas that make up most of its service area. Physical and mental health screenings, injury prevention education and general health information activities are ongoing during the warm weather months in Johnson and five contiguous counties. Mercy continues to be a community leader in ensuring that fewer people experience food insecurity within Johnson County and the State of Iowa. Mercy contributes regularly to Table to Table, a local organization that collects wholesome, edible food from donors (grocery stores, restaurants, and Mercy Iowa City) and redirects it to food pantries and meal sites in the county. Mercy is also a lead organization for Thanksgiving in July, an annual summer food drive whose goal is to fill food pantries at a time of year when they have fewer donations and children are out of school, not receiving free and reduced breakfast and lunch. This program was started at Mercy Iowa City in 1995 and has grown to include many other sites in the State of Iowa including Des Moines, Dubuque and the Quad cities. Mercy has also held additional food drives during the year. Mercy's pastoral care department provides clothing to patients who are discharged with nothing to wear, often because what they had when they were admitted is no longer wearable (cut off in the Emergency Room, etc.) and there is no one to bring them anything. The chaplains also coordinate the Shoes That Fit program to meet clothing and footwear needs for children in area elementary schools who do not have appropriate attire, especially during the colder weather months when they need heavy coats and boots. Mercy's 24-hour "Mercy On Call" service provides medical triage and health information, can schedule provider appointments and refer callers to local supporting services. Environmental Improvements Mercy has been a good neighbor by maintaining its buildings and landscaping at a high level. Mercy also pursues extensive recycling (including newspapers, office paper, magazines, plastics, batteries, cooking oil, construction materials and more) and programs that reduce energy consumption. Mercy is expanding its recycling program to make it easier for colleagues and visitors to participate throughout the hospital. Mercy has also sold four houses it owned adjacent to its campus to the Iowa City which rehabilitated them for single family use during the last several years. Leadership Development and Training of Community Members Mercy lends support to the annual Community Leadership program of the Iowa City Area Chamber of Commerce, a nine-month leadership development program for 24 individuals who are increasing their professional and personal commitment to the community and typically sponsors a class member each year. It participates actively in the health care day of education. Mercy also supports an active Clinical Ladder program for nurses, offers Continuing Education Credit (CEU) courses and conferences open to medical professionals across the state on a regular basis, such as those tailored to Emergency care, Hospitalist care and Nursing care. Mercy also offers a location for CEU courses for the local Honoring Your Wishes initiative which encourages all adults to have Advance Directives that are current and reflect their wishes. The CEU courses train individuals to become certified counselors to help individuals with their Advance Directives, and to train certified counselors to assist with IPOST which is the Iowa version of the national POLST directive, a medical order for those with terminal conditions. Honoring Your Wishes is the program used at Mercy, and the hospital offers free assistance to anyone in its service area who needs it to complete their documents. Mercy is a co-sponsor of the Johnson County SAFE Kids Coalition whose mission is to prevent or reduce preventable injuries to children from birth to age 14. SAFE Kids promotes the correct use of child safety restraints in vehicles, bicycle helmets, and safety education to prevent falls, burns, poisoning and more. Mercy is also a lead partner of Safety Village, a two-week summer safety camp for children aged 5-7 held in a miniature village on the grounds of one of our local elementary schools. Each summer, 200 children participate in classes and safety education with local EMS, police, sheriffs and others. Mercy is also a lead partner in a new Health and Rural Safety of Eastern Iowa initiative which works to reduce preventable injuries in the agricultural community such as heavy equipment, large animal, pesticides and more. This partnership also seeks to increase health screenings and referrals to primary and specialty care for this population, that includes Anabaptist, and provide education to improve health. Some of this is accomplished through youth safety camps, FFA (Future Farmers of America) and 4-H programs, county fairs, community events and in cooperation with churches.
