Part I, line 2	Scholarships, fellowships and grants are given in accordance with the terms of the will and codicil of F Wendell Miller to the individuals pursuing or wishing to pursue undergraduate or graduate studies at the university of Iowa or Iowa State University and to faculty members of such universities. The last will and testament provides that scholarships will be given to persons who are "worthy, competent and serious and deserving of financial assistance." Recipients will be selected by the existing financial aid offices of the two universities and by selection committees, which may be appointed or designated by the board of directors of the organization. It is the responsibility of the selection committee and established university financial aid offices to verify the recipients are qualified to receive payments under the terms and provisions of the last will and testament.
