Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Our main program provides comprehensive services for both youth and adults which include case management, professional and peer-group counseling, legal assistance, life skills training, parenting education and role-modeling, job development and placement, financial empowerment, 24-hour advocacy and protection, and referrals for medical care, substance abuse rehabilitation, specialty services of all kinds, and permanent housing.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Our transitional housing programs consist of two transitional facilities offering up to 30 beds for clients and their children (boys and girls ages birth through 17). The shelters offer emergency and transitional stage care to children and adults, reentry adults, and to those who are further along in their recovery and path to independence. Program activities are designed to help clients overcome the devastating effects of difficulties that impair personal and family functioning in order to achieve self-sufficiency.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Mental health therapy is a core service of the Centers residential and nonresidential programs. Currently clients are referred to outside organizations for the provision of these services. We are in the process of being licensed as a Certified Community Behavioral Health Center so that we are able to offer these services internally, 24 hours a day at two of the Centers locations, and during business and extended business hours at three drop in service center locations.
