Name: Wolf Run Village Inc

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Rental housing complex development for public service employees: The purpose of the program is the development, construction, and operation of a 42-unit rental housing project affordable for public service employees. The organization began fundraising activities and preparation for purchasing of the land on which to build the housing facilities in July 2012. Wolf Run Village completed the land acquisition in Watford City, North Dakota, in March 2013. The housing facilities for rent were built and provided to approximately 42 public service employees beginning August 2013, with the rent being partially subsidized by various City, County and State agencies, some of whose employees reside in the complex. The project is operated at 120-130 4th Avenue SE, Watford City, ND 58854.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Children's daycare center development: The purpose of the project is the construction and development of a children's daycare facility for 202 children, located in Watford City, North Dakota. As of August 2014, Wolf Run operates a newly constructed facility approved by the State of North Dakota assisted by Director Tessa Moberg. The services of the daycare center are available to working families throughout the Watford City community that have young children.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy covers all directors, principal officers, and members of committees. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
