Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization provides funding for Fundacion Defensores De Amor, a non-government organization located in Los Corrales, Distrito Municipal Samana, Dominican Republic. Fundacion Defensores De Amor operates a facility at this location. This property has two homes that are new in construction and is located on more than half an acre. The main home as it stands today can house up to 15 children and is referred to as the Childrens Home. The second home is designed to be an all-girls home and can house up to 8 girls. It is called Casa de Rosa. Both homes are designed to be a permanent residence for these children. Fundacion Defensores De Amor partners with a local church and has a loving staff that are serving in these homes as part of their ministry. This facility is specifically designed not to be an institution or an orphanage, but rather a loving, nurturing home for all that will reside there. there

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

the community based care program of Fundacion Defensores de Amor is designed specifically for those children who meet the foundations requirements of having a suitable adult advocate, but are grossly lacking physical, medical and/or educational care. Through clothing, feeding, medical, and/or educational sponsorship their critical needs are met. The goal of the community care program is to defer the orphan status for children that would typically be cared for in the childrens home to being cared for by the same standards within their communities by a suitable adult advocate.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Fundacion Defensores de Amor has also established 2 churches that are designed explicitly for children ages 2 -17 yrs of age to help achieve the goal of providing the adequate spiritual care for the children within our care. They are open to the children within the communities and serve as a positive conduit for the continual integration of the children within our care and the communities they live in.
