Continuation of Mission Related Services Part III	YMCA of Wichita was founded by volunteers in 1885. It was officially charted with the YMCA of the USA on January 10th of that year, and incorporated in the state of Kansas on January 30, 1886. Upon the addition of the EI Dorado YMCA in Butler County, YMCA of Wichita bec ame known as the Greater Wichita YMCA as a charitable organization, the YMCA seeks to mee tithe needs of the Greater Wichita community by providing life changing programs to all ages, incomes, genders, races, faiths and abilities. In 2018, the Greater Wichita YMCA consisted of thirteen branches, each with a volunteer board, dedicated to serving all people in the community by providing affordable licensed childcare and camp, free outreach services like swim lessons, after school and mentoring programs targeted toward low-income kids, community wellness activities, and accessible healthy lifestyle programs such as swimming, dance, gymnastics, youth sports, employee wellness, nutrition, family recreation, disease management and much more. These programs focus on youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility. They are offered in Sedgwick, Butler and Harvey counties at more than 200 sites including schools, municipal fields, churches, area businesses, other community facilities, and 9 YMCA multi-purpose facilities. More than 1,300 employees, 4,267 volun teers and 5,016 contributors made the delivery of these services possible. These services were provided to 296,157 people in 2018. With all the Y services and program sites, they provide a family environment with policies, training and staff procedures established to en courage the participation of youth. Children ages 10 and older may participate independent by in Y recreational activities like swimming, family centers, youth fitness and indoor sports. Youth ages 13 and older have the same access and privileges as adults and are included in all Y recreational and wellness activities such as swimming, group exercise, wellness centers, racquetball courts and much more in addition, the Y

Continuation of Mission Related Services Part III	YOUTH DEVELOPMENT - YOUTH SPORTS The Y's sports, recreation and youth programs promote an appreciation of one's own worth. Youth sports focus on progression of skill as well as participation for all. Every child plays in every game. The Y's youth sports programs also help to strengthen families. Parents coach teams and turn out with brothers and sisters to watch kids play. Young people participating in sports build lifelong positive attitudes, sustainable physical fitness habits and good nutrition, and learn ways to have fun as adult s. The Y is the largest provider of youth sports programs in the greater Wichita community, offering basketball, baseball, soccer, flag and tackle football, volleyball and more. Whether it is a youth or adult sport program at the Y, the same values apply - no putdowns, name calling, profanity, display respect for others and give everyone a chance to play. The e Y's core values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility are included in coaching curriculum. In addition, both adult and youth sports programs value cooperation over competition, fair play over winning at any cost, good feeling and good health over a good score, and building self-esteem over beating the opponent. The Y knows that with this approach everyone wins - undefeated in spirit, mind and body. In 2018, the Y had 59,341 participant registrations in youth sports programs in our communities, consisting of basketball, base ball, soccer, football, volleyball, softball, gymnastics, cheerleading, dance, climbing wall, and martial arts. Youth sports programs are subsidized to keep them affordable to the community and many participants are given the opportunity to participate through the YMCA's financial assistance program. YOUTH DEVELOPMENT - EARLY LEARNING & EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS. The Greater Wichita YMCA provides working families and teen parents with affordable, acce ssible, quality childcare for their children on a daily basis in our community. The Y prov ides scholarship assistance to families and children in need.

The Y also provides childcare services in seven area high schools, allowing teen parents an opportunity to complete their edu cation or continue with career and technical education programs offered by the school district. The high school centers also provide observation experiences and serve as training I abs for vocational students. The Y's childcare programs follow the nutrition guidelines set by the Child and Adult Care Food Program for each age group. The Y's childcare programs include a national physical activity curriculum to keep children active and healthy, and c onduct annual parent conferences and parent events to keep families engaged in each child's progress. The Y also offers affordable childcare services to teen parents through child development centers operating inside area high schools. These student parents receive both financial and personal support to help care for their children, develop strong parenting skills and stay in school for graduation. The Y's financial assistance policies help ensure that the Y is a place where children of all economic levels, from the affluent to the di sadvantaged, receive the same quality care in the same setting. YMCA day camps foster self-confidence and self-respect as campers meet challenges and learn to cooperate. The Y's camping programs for kids who have completed kindergarten through age 15 are educational, they promote spiritual awareness, mental development, physical well-being, social growth, and a respect for the environment. Through a variety of activities and the use of natural su rroundings, Y camping seeks to help participants achieve their fullest potential in spirit, mind and body. In 2018, the Y continued another free program for its third year, focused on preventing the learning loss that many low-income kids experience each summer. Hosted at Caldwell Elementary, 23 children had fun as they improved their effective reading age by an average of 2 months in the Y-SOAR (Summary of Awesome Reading) program. To address the widening achievement gap in Kansas, the Y also launched a free Power Schola rs AcademyTM in 2016, which continued in 2018. This partnership between the Y, the national nonprofit BELL (Building Educated Leaders for Life), and Goddard USD #265 increased 72 students' academic success and boosted self-confidence, while also engaging families in the education process. This six-week, full-day summer learning experience combined small group, rigorous academic instruction with fun, hands-on enrichment activities, field trips, and service projects. Designed to help students gain new academic skills, this program stren gthened their literacy and math skills so they could enter school in the fall ready to succeed. Instruction is led by certified teachers and supported by teaching assistants. During 2018, test results showed that students gained 2 months of academic progress in literacy and 1.5 months in mathematics over the summer months. The Y is the largest provider of Ka nsas Department of Health and Environment (KDHE) licensed childcare and camp in the metrop olitan area for children from 2 weeks through the early teen years, providing quality, aff ordable childcare in addition, no family is turned away due to an inability to pay. The Y 's childcare program is unique because of its multiple locations, community partnerships, sliding fee scale, comprehensive services for working families, and National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) accreditation. Partners in this program include 10 unified school districts in Wichita and neighboring commu

The Y offers medically-based health and wellness activities for all ages and abilities, ranging from prenatal and parent / child fitness to senior wellness programs. People with disabilities and those with chronic ailments such as arthritis, cancer and heart disease find Y programs that are tailored to them. Wellness, a quatics, sports, dance, gymnastics and other youth development programs are subsidized to keep them affordable to the community and many participate through the Y's financial assis tance program. Y programs are designed to attract people of all ages, all abilities, and all incomes and did so by serving 296,157 people in 2018. The Y's healthy living programs a re designed to impact wellness of the community. The familiar Y triangle emphasizes the on eness of spirit, mind and body. The Y healthy lifestyle programs help achieve this unity through medically based programs that stress proper physical activity, nutrition, stress ma nagement and health education. Within our full-service YMCA facilities, the emphasis is on family with a full complement of programs for individuals six weeks in age to senior cit zens. Y policies, training and staff procedures are also in place to encourage the participation of youth As stated previously, the Y also creates a safe and inclusive environment with certified staff members supervising pools, family centers and wellness centers to en sure youth and adult safety. The Y also targets staffing and training to best serve the most unfit participants. New YMCA members, ages 13 and older, are offered free of charge, un limited featured workouts to introduce them to fitness activities and develop healthy life style habits. In addition, participants may receive up to t

The Y has dedicated, safe and supervised space and time for programs specifically designed to get and keep them fit in spirit, mind and body. Youth ages 13 and up are also eligible to participate in all adult Y recreational and wellness activities. The Y offers day and guest fees that allow non-members to use the full-service facilities. The Y provides financial assistance to non-member program participants for swim lessons, dance, gymnastics, youth sports and many other programs. The Y keeps health and wellness program s affordable for most families as is demonstrated by the participation of 28,000 area hous eholds with annual incomes below. $50,000 Furthermore, the Y's affordable programs and fin ancial assistance policies help low-income families who are less likely to be physically a ctive or have adequate health care gain access to wellness activities. The Y also offered community wellness days and open houses for Thanksgiving and New Year's Day in 2018. These activities provided free access to a variety of services and health screenings for all community members in an effort to encourage healthy habits for kids, adults and families through the year. Other wellness challenge events including a holiday weight management program, half-marathon training, triathlons, racquetball tournaments, and 100-mile swim club to promote wellness and change the lives of thousands of area kids and adults. HEALTHY LIVIN G - DISEASE MANAGEMENT. The Y offers a variety of chronic disease management and prevention programs. The YMCA's Diabetes Prevention Program is a year-long behavior change program designed to help adults who are at high risk for developing type 2 diabetes reduce their c hances of developing the disease. Job Prep is a 12-week training program that helps teens, ages 15 to 17, develop communication skills, fill out an application, learn how to dress and prepare for an interview, and develop skills such as professionalism, financial res ponsibility and quality customer service. The Y's Job Prep participants learn from a varie ty of sources including guest speakers from local businesses and agencies, and the Interna I Revenue Service during their weekly meetings. Youth also become certified in CPR and fir st aid. Upon completion, participants may be eligible for a summer job with the Greater Wi chita YMCA or other local businesses. 99 teens from diverse backgrounds participated in the Job Prep program during 2018. The Y continued to host its annual. "We Care." Thanksgiving dinner and coat drive. In 2018, the Y provided the space and a free annual. Thanksgiving dinner, coats, hats and gloves to 725 needy and homeless members of our community. Free bus passes are also provided through the local public transportation department to ensure the event is accessible to needy families from throughout the community. During the Y's annual We Care dinner, community volunteers shared their time and resources with others less for tunate in the spirit of the Thanksgiving holiday. During 2017, the YMCA started a new community outreach program for teens called Late Night. In 2018, that program was expanded to a second location. THE GREATER WICHITA YMCA BELONGS TO THE COMMUNITY. The Y meets many important community needs, but is more than just a collection of programs and activities. The Y is an association of members, volunteers, contributors and staff who come together for the good of all. In addition, the YMCA is a community gathering place that is convenient, inclusive, affordable and accessible to all. These gathering places feature 32 gymnasiums, 26 swimming pools (including 4 outdoor water parks), 60 child care centers, an indoor soccer center, two indoor courts centers, 124 acres of camp grounds, and 80 acres of outdoor sport fields with artificial turf fields at El Dorado and Maize school districts. Through these community gathering places, the Y provides a framework within which people from all walks of life can come together for the common good. As a charitable organization, the Y reinvests all excess funds into serving the greater Wichita community through expanded programs, services and facilities. The Y is proud to be an organization that supports families through life changing programs like child care, camping, swimming, sports, wellness, nutrition, character development and more. We give families a safe, reliable and affordable place to spend time together. Recreational opportunities such as family swim and gym time, outdoor water parks, family wellness centers and youth sports lets families relax and enjoy each other. The Y can be summed up through our three areas of focus, we're for youth development, health living and social responsibility.
