Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Public Policy Advocacy PHRMA's mission is to conduct effective advocacy for public policies that encourage discovery of important new medicines for patients by pharmaceutical/biotechnology research companies. PhRMA achieves this mission by working with, and on behalf of, its member companies before governmental and regulatory bodies in the United States and throughout the world in support of pro-patient, pro-innovation policies. Specifically, PhRMA advocates for broad patient access to safe and effective medicines through a free market, without government price controls, strong intellectual property incentives, and transparent, efficient regulation and a free flow of information to patients.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Member Services In representing the country's leading pharmaceutical research and biotechnology companies, PhRMA provides a forum for member companies to participate in discussions of relevant health care issues and to develop consensus positions on matters of public policy advocacy Member companies participate in PhRMA activities through representation on the Board of Directors, Board-level committees and key issue teams, staff work groups, sections, task forces, and subcommittees Member company representatives also regularly communicate with PhRMA staff

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

General Education about Biopharmaceutical industry PhRMA disseminates information about biopharmaceutical companies, their products, and their business, scientific and philanthropic activities through a wide range of channels, including profiles, reports, principles, guidelines, fact sheets, policy papers and other resources. These efforts bolster PhRMA's ability to educate and inform members of the general public as well as policymakers, the media, patients and others in the health care community about the biopharmaceutical industry and PhRMA's public policy activities in particular.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	Depending on the nature and purpose of the grant, PHRMA may require the recipient of a grant to submit periodic reports or similar documentation to verify that the grant is being used appropriately for the intended use. In general, unless the grant is used to support a specific effort or project, then no additional formal monitoring may be involved beyond ensuring appropriate documentation of the grant and legitimacy of the recipient organization. Irrespective of the nature or purpose of the grant, PHRMA awards grants based on the understanding that recipients are responsible for ensuring that grants are used for proper purposes and in compliance with all legal requirements.

Return Reference	Explanation
Sch F, Part I & Part II	The Dubai office of the organization makes grants to both foreign and domestic organizations. The full amount of grants made by the Dubai office are reported as grant-making on Part I, regardless of whether the recipient was foreign or domestic. 990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	PhRMA's conflict of interest policy (policy) requires all employees to promptly disclose any fact or circumstance that may involve a conflict of interest to the employee's supervisor or the legal department before starting an activity or acquiring an interest which may be questionable. The policy identifies specific situations which must be disclosed because a conflict of interest could exist. Employees are directed to contact personnel in the legal department or finance and operations department with any questions about a possible conflict of interest. Officers and key employees must complete an annual certification that requires them to certify their duty to comply with the policy and to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest. Members of PhRMA's board of directors are subject to the conflict of interest policy with respect to members of the board of directors (directors policy). The directors policy requires members of the board of directors to disclose the existence or possible existence of any conflict of interest to the board of directors and members of committees of the board of directors considering the proposed matter giving rise, or relating, to such existing or possible conflict of interest. The remaining board of directors or committee members determine if a conflict of interest exists with respect to the director who made the disclosure. If a conflict of interest is found to exist, the interested director is barred from participating in a meeting or any related deliberations discussing or with respect to the matter giving rise to the conflict of interest, receiving any communications regarding such matter, and participating in or being present for a vote on such matter. Each board member must sign an annual acknowledgement with respect to compliance with the directors policy.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Each executive's performance is assessed annually against specific performance objectives and organization values. Senior leadership, including the President/CEO, review these evaluations and make recommendations for any compensation adjustments, including merit increases and bonus appropriate to performance and within available budget. These recommendations are reviewed with and approved by the Governance and Compensation Committee of the PhRMA Board. Human Resources reviews all salary adjustments to assure salaries remain within a reasonable range compared to market benchmarks. The Governance & Compensation Committee reviews and approves merit increase, annual bonus and long-term incentive awards. President/CEO compensation is established by PhRMA's Board of Directors, with recommendation by the Governance and Compensation Committee. The Governance and Compensation Committee considers and approves the CEO's annual compensation adjustment, annual bonus, long-term incentive award and deferred compensation award, based on performance to annual objectives. PhRMA engages an independent consultant to advise on executive compensation, including that of the President/CEO.
