Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The Company is a not-for-profit corporation and is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been provided. The Company follows the guidance for accounting for uncertainty in income taxes as recognized in an organization's consolidated financial statements that prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. The guidance also addresses derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, and disclosure. Management has determined that this guidance had no material effect on the consolidated financial statements. The Company's policy is to recognize interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in general and administrative expenses. There were no interest or penalties recognized on the consolidated statement of operations and changes in net assets as a result of this guidance. Generally, tax returns for years ended June 30, 2017, and thereafter remain subject to examination by federal and state tax authorities.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive director is an employee of the management company, contracted to provide management oversight at the community. The executive director's initial compensation was based on industry market survey comparisons and initial compensation and annual wage adjustments are approved by the board of directors during review and approval of the annual operating budget. Key employees are reviewed annually with a uniform performance review process and document which rates performance on standards, guidelines, financial performance, quality, resident satisfaction, employee relations, regulatory compliance and customer service, as well as other variables important to the organization. The merit increase, if appropriate, is based upon the performance review of the employee and the approved budget scale for each fiscal year. Salaries are reviewed at least annually for comparison to national salary information from Leading Age (a national organization for CCRC's) and regional salary information is used for comparison purposes as state data is not available. Should adjustments be required in the salary scale based upon competitive wage factors, the changes are approved by the Board of Directors as well as the management company, Greystone Communities, and incorporated into the operating budget.
