Part XV. Line 2. Supplementary Information

Students admitted to the University of Charleston and the University of Virginia apply to their respective schools for scholarship aid from the Foundation. The schools then make recommendations to the Foundation as to which students should be considered for scholarship aid. The Episcopal Diocese of West Virginia through its Bishop nominates students admitted to the Virginia Theological Seminary or other seminaries. The Trustees of the Foundation make the final decision as to which students are granted scholarship aid.

Students attending West Virginia University and other schools apply directly to the Foundation for scholarship aid. They submit applications in writing to the Foundation at any time prior to August 1 of the year in which they wish to receive the aid. The Trustees consider these applications at their August meeting. No specific form of application is required, but the applicants are requested to furnish the Foundation with the following information:

Statement Attached to 2018 Return of Private Foundation Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990-PF) - Page 9

The applicant's name and address, age, schools attended, names and addresses of parents, brothers, and sisters, the applicant's prior academic achievements (including lists of courses and grades) in secondary schools and colleges, aptitude and achievement test scores, awards, and any written recommendations by teachers or others.

It is the policy of the trustees of the Foundation that only residents of the State of West Virginia are eligible for awards of scholarship aid. There are, however, no specific restrictions on awards in the trust indenture creating the Foundation.

Grants to other qualified, tax-exempt organizations are also permitted under the governing instrument.
