Name: Asheville Art Museum Association Inc

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Established by artists and incorporated in 1948, Asheville Art Museum (the Museum) is committed to being a vital force in the community and individual development and to providing life-long opportunities for education and enrichment through the visual arts. The Museum has established its expertise in the collection, preservation, and interpretation of American art beginning in the 20th century and making innovative and outstanding exhibition experiences available to residents and visitors to WNC. The Museum preserves important aspects of our national and regional heritage through strategic collecting and the conscientious stewardship of great works of art. In 2019-20 the Museum served 208,410 participants including 55,398 children and presented 19 exhibitions drawing from its own Collection and borrowed works. In addition, the Museum curates projects focusing on themes of contemporary interest and invites internationally acclaimed curators to contribute their skills. The Asheville Art Museum provides vital and otherwise unavailable cultural and educational services to adults and children. In 2019-20 the Museum offered more than 815 in-house and out-reach programs for audiences of all ages including school and adult tours, teacher training, workshops, art camps, films, book club, artist talks, as well as volunteer and entertainment experiences. Arts-based educational programming is an important focus, and every year the Museum provides visual arts programming to audiences of all ages through a diverse range of Museum programming and activities, including outreach educational programs, group tours for K-12, family days, home school and after school programs, art camps, and more. Returning arts programming to the schools, coupled with integrating the arts into the exploration of academic disciplines such as math, social studies and communications has been shown to improve critical thinking, performance, life-long learning and success. Strong and long-standing Museum partners include institutions throughout the region serving pre-kindergarten students through senior citizens. Museum programs offer access to the visual arts to at-risk, low-income youth from across WNC. The Museum's collections and special exhibitions are central to its educational programs and are used daily throughout the year by audiences of all ages from preschoolers to seniors. Without the Museum's programs, many of the school districts across WNC would have little or no art classes or art curricula due to budget constraints. The Museum takes a leadership role in making its Collection and exhibitions as accessible as possible, both physically and intellectually. These are important resources that engage urban and rural residents including many retirees, educators, and artists who find original works of art that have significance to their daily lives.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt III, Line 4	Collections and Relation to Exempt Purpose: The Museum has established its expertise in the collection, preservation, and interpretation of American art beginning in the 20th century and in all aspects of public programming, making innovative and outstanding exhibition experiences available to residents of and visitors to Western North Carolina. The Museum preserves important aspects of our national and regional heritage through strategic collecting and the conscientious stewardship of great works of art. The collection, containing more than 5,180 works in all media and 4,905 architectural drawings, is the only such resource in the region. The Museum annually presents 20-22 exhibitions drawing from the Permanent Collection and borrowed works.

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt V, Line 4	In 2004, the Museum began a capital campaign for a major construction, renovation and historic preservation project to create new facilities and secure an endowment for long-term sustainability of the facilities and operations of new facilities and a museum endowment. The Museum has an interest in a donor restricted, perpetual endowment fund with the Community Foundation of Western North Carolina. The fund was established by the Museum in 1994 with donor funds and is structured such that the organization recognizes the endowment asset on its books. The terms of the endowment provide for the distribution of an annual spendable amount from investment income as provided for in the Community Foundation's investment and distribution policies for support for the operation and projects. The Board of Trustees also designated funds for the Capital Campaign and a Quasi-endowment for Collections.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt X, Line 2	The Museum is exempt from federal income taxes under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Code, income from certain activities not related to the organization's tax-exempt purpose may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. The organization had no income from unrelated business activities in the 2018-19 fiscal year and was, therefore, not required to file Federal Form 990-T (Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return). The organization believes that it has appropriate support for all tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt III, Line 1a	The Collection, which was acquired through purchases and contributions, is not recognized as an asset on the Statement of Financial Position. Purchases of Collection items are recorded as expenses in the year in which the items are acquired. Contributed Collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries, although rare, are reflected as other income in the period received when applicable. The Museum added 591 works of various media to the Collection in the 2019-20 fiscal year through generous public gifts and acquisitions.
