Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions. The President and President Emeritus' wives travel with them on occasion to support development and public relations efforts of the University. The governing board has specifically authorized this and recognizes it as necessary and for bona fide business purposes, this benefit is therefore not included as taxable compensation to the President or President Emeritus. Housing allowance or residence for personal use. Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code Section 107, ministerial housing allowances are provided for qualifying ministerial employees. This is not included in taxable compensation. All officers met the qualifications for and received a ministerial housing allowance during the tax year. The President Emeritus receives a housing allowance that is treated as taxable income on his W-2. Health or social club dues or initiation fees. The governing board has authorized the payment of social club dues for the President and the President Emeritus for the purpose of entertaining University donors, board members, etc. These are not included in taxable compensation since they are for bona fide business purposes. Personal Services. The President and President Emeritus are also authorized by the governing board to receive reimbursement for housekeeping and yard services due to the frequency of University guests entertained at their personal residences. This is not treated as taxable compensation. All perquisites indicated above have been instituted by the governing board of the University.
