PART IX-A - SUMMARY OF DIRECT CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES:

- (1) $37,504 for the SABBATICAL PROGRAM - In 1990, with prior approval from the IRS, the Foundation established a sabbatical program for individuals in paid full-time leadership positions who have served their North Carolina nonprofit organization for at least three years. The sabbaticals were established to provide an incentive to leaders of charitable organizations to continue their charitable work, and to improve and enhance their leadership capacity, skills, and talents. Each recipient is awarded $30,000 and each recipient's organization is awarded $5,000.
- (2) $10,339 for the NONPROFIT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM - In 2010, the Foundation established an internship program. Through this program, 20 low income college students are matched with 20 current or former Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, Inc. grantees for a full-time summer internship lasting at least 8 weeks. These costs represent expenses associated with administering the program.
- (3) $256,621 for SPECIAL PROJECTS, OPPORTUNITIES, CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS:
 - (A) $(1,051) unspent funds returned from the North Carolina Commission on the Administration of Law and Justice. In 2015 the Foundation provided $250,000 for support of the North Carolina Commission on the Administration of Law and Justice. The Commission was tasked with making recommendations on reengineering or redesigning components of that system for the purpose of improving overall efficiency and effectiveness, increasing court user satisfaction, and promoting public trust and confidence in the administration of justice in our state.
 - (B) $47,672 for convening of a diverse group of leaders that insures ZSR's understanding of issues and opportunities facing communities of North Carolina.
 - (C) $175,000 for a re-entry initiative. North Carolinians with criminal records face significant barriers to employment, housing, and other opportunities for productive citizenship. A growing body of research demonstrates that restoring opportunities for productive citizenship to individuals with criminal records is critical in reducing recidivism and addressing racial and economic inequalities. Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, in partnership with the Governor of North Carolina and North Carolina Department of Public Safety, is utilizing consultants to develop a strategic re-entry action plan for North Carolina.

(D) $35,000 for support of convenings for school superintendents and other school district leadership. The primary objective of these meetings is to develop leadership capacity of current and future school administrators.
