These grants fund direct patient home health & hospice care, community wellness clinics, operational support of the VNA hospice house, program initiatives & upgraded technology to enhance efficiencies & patient care outcomes. During the tax year, unpaid volunteers contributed approximately 300 hours of their time in direct support of the Foundation. Volunteers assisted in various program areas. Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

The Foundation has a dedicated and robust gift planning strategy to cultivate, solicit and steward donors to include the Foundation in their estate plans which can include wills, trusts, retirement accounts, life insurance, and charitable gift annuities. Partnering with the donor's trusted financial or legal advisor is a critical component of the program and requires similar cultivation, solicitation and stewardship plans. In the most recent fiscal year, the total donor dollars received through planned gifts was $371,683. Upon notification of the passing of a donor who has included the VNA in their estate plans, the administration process can be lengthy with a 12-18 month timeline for receipt of gift in most cases.

Form 990, Part III, LINE 1 Continued	Thanks to the generous donors who believe in building a healthier community for all through their gifts to the VNA and Hospice Foundation, the VNA of the Treasure Coast and VNA Hospice of Indian River County are able to care for everyone in need regardless of their financial resources. The Foundation partners with VNA to support programs and services that otherwise would not be funded through insurance, Medicare or Medicaid. Examples include charitable home health and hospice VNA, Hospice House support, bereavement, support and therapy services, technology professional development, training and certification for clinicians, community wellness programs, special patient needs. On average each year, more than $2 million is required to care for local residents who are sick, recovering from surgery, facing a life limiting illness or having a chronic health condition such as heart disease or diabetes. The VNA and Hospice Foundation works with charitably-inclined individuals, families, foundations and businesses to understand and align their passions with the organization's most pressing needs. Funds are raised through mailings, strategic conversations with donors, an annual special event, memorial contributions, grants, bequests and estates.
