Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of endowment funds	Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Foundation must h old in perpetuity as well as board-designated funds. The Foundation has adopted an investment policy for its endowment assets that attempts to grow the value of the endowment asset s. The Foundation's board appoints a treasurer who has the responsibility of making recommendations concerning the Foundation's investment policies. The Foundation's primary investment objectives are to increase the purchasing power of the various assets while preserving their principal value. These objectives are to be achieved in concert with the Catholic. Health Initiative's Social Responsibility Policy. To ensure such objectives are attained, the Foundation has determined that the portfolio composition shall adhere to the guideline s described below depending on fund restrictions. Unrestricted Funds. These funds will be placed in an investment mix providing the highest total return, which may include up to 70% equities. The investment goals are to preserve principal and achieve long-term growth. Restricted Funds. These funds will be placed in an investment mix to promote an adequate re turn on the funds while the principal is maintained in order to meet certain income needs that may be associated with the funds. These funds may also include up to 70% equities. The Foundation's investment objectives realize that prudent investment management is a duty and portfolio performance shall be monitored by the board on a regular basis. The Foundation Endowment funds are long-term reserves to provide outstanding healthcare to the community and support the maintenance and operation of the Saint Joseph Hospital in Lexington, KY

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	Catholic Health Initiatives ("CHI") has a Conflicts of Interest ("COI") policy (the "Polic y") in place to maintain the integrity of all of its activities. The Policy applies to CHI Board of Stewardship Trustees and members of its committees, all CHI Entity board and board committee members, all CHI employees, and all CHI research personnel (both employed and non-employed). Disclosure, review and management of perceived, potential or actual conflicts of interest are accomplished through a defined COI disclosure review process. Each Per son must promptly and fully disclose to his/her direct manager, supervisor, medical staff office, board or board committee chair any situation or circumstance that may create a con flict of interest. The Person must disclose the actual or potential conflict as soon as she/he becomes aware of it. In any situation where the Person may be in doubt, a full disclosure should be made to permit an impartial and objective determination. In addition to the general ongoing obligation, there are initial disclosure obligations. At the time of initial appointment, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to the board or committee member along with a conflict of interest disclosure. The board or committee member will complete and submit the disclosure. The completed disclosure shall be maintained in confidence and access shall be limited to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. At the time of hiring, a copy of the Policy shall be distributed to all Employees. In addition, a conflict of interest disclosure shall be maintained in confidence and access shall be limited to persons who have a reasonable need to know the contents. In addition to the general ongoing and initial disclosure obligations, there is an annual disclosure obligation. On an annual basis, the following Persons must complete a new conflict of interest disclosure. *Board and board committee members, *Employees at the level of vice president and above, *Researchers, *Supply Chain Employees at the level of vice

When a Person has, or is consi dering initiating, a business interest or relationship outside of CHI but is uncertain whe their the interest constitutes a conflict of interest requiring disclosure under this Polic y, the Person should consult with local Corporate Responsibility Program (CRP) staff or CH I Legal Services. Group (LSG) staff, as appropriate. As appropriate, a COI management plan will be developed. With respect to those audiences for which the C-CIRC has review respons ibility, the C-CIRC will facilitate development of any such COI management plan in collaboration with local CRP staff or CHI LSG staff, as appropriate. This plan will include docum entation of the C-CIRC's determinations and recommendations. As necessary, reports to an a propriate governmental agency or sponsor will be made according to the relevant appendice is to this Policy to provide required information regarding how the conflict of interest will be managed, reduced, or eliminated. Designated CHI Entity staff are responsible for monitoring the COI management plan and for documenting monitoring activities. At its sole discretion, a CHI Entity may reject a Person's request to enter into the relationship in question, or require the relationship be sufficiently altered to avoid a potential conflict of interest. The C-CIRC will determine whether a disclosed or otherwise identified interest is a conflict of interest. If the C-CIRC determines that a potential or actual conflict of interest exists that does not currently have appropriate controls to address the conflict of interest, it may recommend that the disclosing Person be allowed to participate in the activity or transaction subject to restrictions as o
