Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The Hospital and the Foundation are exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3). TCH Ventures is a taxable entity under the Internal Revenue Code. At present, the Government of the Cayman Islands has imposed no taxation on income or premiums of Holy Innocents. The Company adheres to the provisions of the Accounting Standards Codification relating to uncertainty in income taxes that requires entities to assess their uncertain tax positions for the likelihood that they would be overturned upon Internal Revenue Service (IRS) examination or upon examination by state taxing authorities. The Company has determined that it does not have any positions at December 31, 2019 and 2018, that it would be unable to substantiate. The Company has filed its tax returns through December 31, 2018. The tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2016, and thereafter are subject to audit by the taxing authorities.

Part I, Line 2:	The grantees for the past several years have all been UAB faculty. Once provided to the principal investigators (PI) the monies are deposited with the UAB grants and contracts office for administration. They monitor the spending of the grant funds to ensure that the money is used in accordance with the grant budget. Any deviations from the budget or the timeline require KPRI approval. Any deviations in the research project itself require KPRI approval and the approval of the chairman of the scientific review committee. UAB grants and contracts require approval in writing before they will deviate from budget or timeline. The principal investigator (PI) is required to submit a progress report at the end of year one. The scientific review committee reviews the grant progress and communicates adequate progress to the KPRI executive committee. Adequate progress must be demonstrated before year two funding is provided. At the end of year two, a final report is due as well.
