Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	The University's nondiscriminatory statement is included in local and regional newspaper advertising, as well as on the University website
Schedule E, Part I, Line 6	The federal government awards the University various monies restricted for student financial aid. The monies are awarded through three federal programs: Pell Grant (Pell), Federal Supplemental Opportunity Grant (FSEOG), and Federal Work Study (FWS). Pell provides eligible students a foundation of financial aid to assist with defraying the costs of post-secondary education. Because the Pell grants are classified as pass-through grants, they are excluded from income and expense on the financial statements and Form 990. The FSEOG program provides need-based grants to low-income undergraduate students to promote access to post-secondary education. The FWS program provides part-time employment to students who need the earnings to help meet their postsecondary education costs. The program is also intended to broaden the range of worthwhile job opportunities to qualified students.

Part I, Line 2	Although students and their families bear the primary responsibility for meeting costs, many find they cannot pay the full cost of an education by themselves. In most cases a financial aid package will involve family contributions, acceptance of federal assistance (including grants and loans), and financial aid from John Brown University. These financial assistance programs help fill the gap between the amount a family is expected to pay and the total educational cost. The amount the family is expected to pay is based on information provided on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The tuition assistance is applied to the student's account and therefore, no cash changes hands.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and is then detail reviewed by both the VP of Finance and Administration and by the audit subcommittee. Copies are provided to all trustees for their review before the return is filed with the IRS.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization has a written conflict of interest policy. Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest on an annual basis. Any board member or a member of a committee of the board who perceives a possible conflict of interest involving a matter before the board shall identify that interest to the other members of the board, whether or not that interest is both (1) conflicting and (2) material. If the board or committee chairman determines that a material conflict of interest does exist that member shall refrain from any further discussion on that issue except as requested for information by the board or committee and shall abstain from voting, such abstention being noted in the meeting record. A quorum of the board or committee must exist without that member's presence being needed. The chairman shall determine whether it is appropriate to ask the conflicted individual to be absent during discussion.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive committee of the board reviews, discusses, and approves the proposed salary and benefits for the members of the president's cabinet as submitted by the president. Compensation is benchmarked against national comparison data from the Council for Christian Colleges & Universities (CCCCU) and the Colleges and University Professional Association (CUA). Presidential salary and benefits are also benchmarked with CCCCCU comparison data, determined, and approved by the executive committee of the board. During this process, the executive committee attempts to maintain an appropriate balance of executive compensation levels compared to other salary levels within the institution. The process followed and decisions reached are documented in the minutes.
