990 - LATE FILING EXPLANATION AND PENALTY ABATEMENT REQUEST	March 10, 2022To Whom It May Concern:We, Bement & Company, prepared and remitted this e-fi led Form 990 and Form 990T. We are aware that the return is being filed late and that the entity, Jackson Hole Land Trust, is subject to late fling penalties under Internal Revenue Code section 6652(c)(1). We estimate the penalty will be $2,415. We respectfully request that the late filing penalty be abated based on the IRSs reasonable cause criteria. Accord ing to IRM 20.1.1.3.2, Reasonable cause, the IRS provides relief from a penalty based on r easonable cause when the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence in determining his or her tax obligations but was nevertheless unable to comply with those obligations. The taxpayer was unable to timely file the tax return or request an extension, due to unusual circumstances that were outside of the ordinary business care and prudence exercise d. Unusual circumstances consisted of the following: The taxpayer needed to file an extension. The taxpayer for the last 13 fiscal years from September 30, 2008 through the September 30, 2020 has never had to request an extension. All 990 and 990T tax forms were filed on or before the original due date of February 15th. The fact that an extension was necessary was in and of itself an unusual situation for the taxpayer. Also unusual was the fact that the September 30, 2021 year was the first year a Single Audit under Uniform Standards had been required since the September 30, 2006 year. The additional work on the Single Audit was an unusual circumstance which delayed finalizing the taxpayers audited financial state ments and resulted in the preparation of the tax returns being delayed beyond the original due date of February 15th. In addition to preparing the tax returns, we also performed the Single Audit. The taxpayer requested us to file an extension on their behalf. Amidst the unusual circumstances of the increased workload and time commitment of performing and fin alizing the Single audit and preparing for a finance com

Return Reference	Explanation
990 - LATE FILING EXPLANATION AND PENALTY ABATEMENT REQUEST	the tax returns have been filed. The taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence by recognizing the need for an extension and requesting we file an extension on their be half. We were not negligent or careless; we exercised ordinary business care and prudence by having in place a system that resulted in timely filing of the tax returns before the original due date of the tax return for the past 13 years. We exercise ordinary business care and prudence by having a system in place to identify tax returns that had not been file d and which have not yet been extended by the preparers. To prevent the same situation from happening in the future we are in the process of adding electronic reminders for those fi scal year clients which do not share the same due dates as calendar year clients. The elec tronic reminders will go to several office staff, in case one is away from the office or o therwise busy with other work. We will also create a shared document with all fiscal year clients and their due dates to be accessible by all office staff to increase awareness and compliance. Based on the facts presented above, we respectfully request that the taxpayers penalty be removed based on reasonable cause. This statement is made under penalties of p erjury. If you have any questions, please call me at (801) 936-1900. Thank you for your consideration. Sincerely, Jared Christensen
