Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Permanent Supportive Housing SHP - SHP is an innovative program whose goal is to provide a supportive environment for homeless families while helping them attain the highest level of self-sufficiency. To meet eligibility requirements, the family must be homeless and come from places not meant for human habitation such as cars, parks, sidewalks and abandoned buildings an emergency shelter or a transitional housing program for homeless persons that originally came from the streets or emergency shelter. In addition, only homeless families with one of its members having a qualifying disability are eligible for the SHP program. This current year SAMMinistries housed 152 households made up of 769 formerly homeless individuals.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Transitional Services - Transitional living and learning center TLLC and Transitional Housing TH in 2000, we expanded our programs and facilities to include transitional housing for families at the transitional living and learning center TLLC on Blanco Road. We also have 25 scattered site houses. Both programs allow up to 65 families who meet specific criteria to stay for up to 24 months. Our families are offered classes including life-skills building, money management, parent nurturing, resume writing, and GED exam readiness. In FY 2019 the TLLC and TH programs provided safe housing for 71 families 234 individuals.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Homeless Prevention Services - SAMMinistries has been working with the general community in addressing the barriers that contribute to families and individuals becoming homeless. These barriers are being addressed through community collaboration and through providing direct financial assistance to families and/or individuals who qualify for rental and utility assistance. In FY 2019 SAMMinistries prevented 2,169 individuals 971 families from becoming homeless. With a combination of private and public funding, SAMMinistries has become the largest provider and community leader in the area of homeless prevention services.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2	Subrecipients submit documented reimbursement requests for review and approval. All submit annual single audit reports. All are subject to monitoring and oversight by the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs.
Part I Line 2	Participants receiving assistance through one of our many programs must show evidence of need and meet the requirements of the programs. Cash assistance for temporary rental, utility or other critical assistance is not paid directly to the participant but reather to the property owner or the utility. Case managers are assigned to the participants who monitor the outcomes for those at risk of becoming homeless and those transitioning out of homelessness. The case managers requisition all cash assistance which is then reviewed by the program director and sent to the fiscal department for final approval to ensure availability of the funds and compliance with specific grant requirements.
