Baylor Health Care System (BHCS) is a faith-based, nonprofit supporting organization formed in 1981 to provide centralized strategic and management services to an integrated health care delivery system. BHCS is now affiliated with Baylor Scott & White Health (BSWH), a faith-based nationally acclaimed network of acute care hospitals and related health care entities providing quality patient care, medical education, medical research and other community services to the residents of North and Central Texas. As the largest not-for-profit health care system in Texas and one of the largest in the United States, BSWH was born from the 2013 combination of Baylor Health Care System and Scott & White Healthcare. Today, BSWH includes 50 hospitals, over 1,000 patient care sites, approximately 7,500 active physicians, more than 49,000 employees and the Scott & White Health Plan. BHCS's governing body is comprised of volunteer community representatives who provide leadership and governance to BHCS. The members of the governing body contribute their wisdom, insights and expertise to ensure that BHCS is fulfilling its mission and charitable purpose while providing efficient administrative support services and direction to affiliates of both BHCS and BSWH. As part of its mission, BHCS provides grants and other assistance to BSWH's nonprofit organizations that are religious, charitable, scientific, or educational in nature, within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3). Founded as a Christian ministry of healing, BSWH promotes the well-being of individuals, families and communities. Part II-B, Line 1:	Statement Regarding Legislative Activity: Health care policy is critical to all Americans, and the Organization believes that health care providers must participate in forming health care policy by interacting with national, state and local representatives and their staff members to help them better understand the complexities and ramifications of key health care policies including, without limitation, those related to uninsured and indigent patient needs as well as the legislative and regulatory needs to assure the delivery of cost-efficient, quality health care. The Organization has established relationships with persons and industry associations that often communicate the Organization's positions on major health care issues. These contacts may include direct contact, telephone conversations and/or letters. Also, the Organization may attempt to educate the local community on certain legislative initiatives that may impact The Organization's ability to provide quality health care services to the community through direct mailings, media advertising or broadcast statements. The amount of resources (time and money) involved in these activities is insubstantial. The Organization has not intervened in any political campaign.
