Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

See Schedule OAII Saints Health Foundation (ASHF) provides philanthropic support to Baylor All Saints Medical Center dba Baylor Scott & White All Saints Medical Center -Fort Worth (BSW Fort Worth), the organization's sole member BSW Fort Worth is a faith-based, nonprofit acute care hospital providing quality patient care to the residents of Tarrant County and surrounding communities for more than 100 years. In December 2017, BSW Fort Worth received five stars, the highest possible rating, in the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' Overall Hospital Quality Star Rating program Significant support from ASHF equips BSW Fort Worth to embrace new changes, continue to excel in the delivery of quality services to its patients, and develop new models of care to meet the needs of a growing population. Through the support of generous donors, ASHE is helping BSW Fort Worth improve lives in Tarrant County in many tangible, lasting ways ASHE raises funds on behalf and for the benefit of BSW Fort Worth through grants, annual fund appeals, special project developments, capital campaigns and planned giving programs. Every dollar remains in the community to support and promote the health of the community through medical programs, medical education and other community services. During the fiscal year, ASHF provided over $12,495,000 of dollars in funding for significant programs and services as described below Emergency Care - In August 2017, BSW Fort Worth is opening a new Emergency Care Center to effectively and efficiently manage the volume and anticipated growth of patient needs. The new facility will substantially improve patient care through a well-designed and much larger footprint, an increased number of private beds and an improved work-flow. With four Triage Rooms, the new Emergency Care Center allows physicians and nurses to assess patients and determine the best plan for each individual more efficiently. Joan Katz Breast Center - The Joan Katz Breast Center provides hope for all who hear the words, "You have cancer" All of the non-medical services offered by the Joan Katz Breast Center are free to patients and their families regardless of where they receive their direct medical care. Services offered at the center include, patient navigation from diagnosis through wellness, education regarding disease process, cancer treatment options, nutrition and wellness, one-on-one chemotherapy teaching, connection to community resources and support, coordination of medical appointments, access to Survivor Gals Salon offering specialty products for women facing chemotherapy - related appearance issues, and free yoga and fitness classes. The BSW Fort Worth Paul and Judy Andrews Women's Hospital - The Andrews Women's Hospital is designed specifically to meet the health care needs of women of all ages. Services at the facility include pregnancy and childbirth, gynecology and oncology, pelvic medicine, women's wellness and rehabilitation and a Level III NICU. Two-thirds of all babies born in Fort Worth are delivered at Andrews Women's Hospital In 2009, a generous gift was received and designated to ensure the unique culture and highest standards of guality are maintained at the Andrews Women's Hospital Cardiovascular Care - Heart disease affects 82 million Americans For more than 102 years BSW Fort Worth has delivered advanced heart and vascular care right here in North Texas. The team also has pioneered many breakthrough techniques to revolutionize cardiac care from treatment for heart attacks, major heart surgery, and injuries involving the cardiovascular system. In 2002, the program expanded by partnering with the Baylor Heart and Vascular Hospital for interventional cardiac services, electrophysiology, heart catheterization and opening a hybrid procedural suite. In 2017, BSW Fort Worth opened a Valve Disorder Center to diagnose and treat aortic and mitral valve heart disease, doubling cardiac surgery volumes and providing advanced cardiovascular services previously not available in Fort Worth Advanced services include the only Adult Extracorporeal Membrane Oxygenation (ECMO) service in Tarrant County that provides cardiac and respiration support to persons whose heart and lungs cannot sustain life. BSW Fort Worth also offers the GE Revolution Computed Tomography or CT 512 slice - this new technology allows produces a high-resolution image of the heart in just one beat. After cardiovascular treatments, patients have access to the cardiac and pulmonary rehab program at the Carter Rehab center to allow their fullest possible recovery Palliative Care and Social Work - BSW Fort Worth palliative care consultation services offer compassionate care to help patients facing life-threatening and advanced illnesses. They go beyond medical treatments to help patients and their family members cope with these illnesses The Palliative Care team includes physicians, nurses, chaplains, occupational therapists, social workers, pharmacists, nutritionists, speech therapists, nurse practitioners and a child life specialist. These dedicated team members are trained to help you with the issues you may face in dealing with a critical illness Transplant - The Baylor Annette C and Harold C Simmons Transplant Institute at BSW Fort Worth is an internationally renowned destination for transplant care. The transplant program started in 2002 and performs kidney (including living donor), liver and pancreas transplants. The achievement of reaching 1,000 kidney transplants in 2014 was truly a significant accomplishment for BSW Fort Worth. The world-renowned physicians on their medical staff and highly trained staff have made transplant services a shining star. BSW Fort Worth transplant services reach well beyond Fort Worth since the kidney transplant team now travels weekly to a kidney transplant clinic in Lubbock Setting up these clinics (in areas of need) are part of BSW Fort Worth's patient-centered care. Head and Neck Cancer Program - According to the National Cancer Institute, more than 40,000 Americans are diagnosed with head and neck cancer each year. The Comprehensive Head and Neck Cancer Program at BSW Fort Worth combines medical expertise and advanced solutions for treating patients with all stages of head and neck cancers. Distinguished in their field, the head and neck surgeons on the medical staff participate in clinical research, teaching, and national presentations and publications on head and neck cancer treatment and reconstruction Fort Worth Adolescent and Young Adult Oncology Coalition Unit (The AYA Unit) - Cancer is the number one disease-related cause of death in adolescents and young adults. The AYA Unit brings together teen and young adult cancer patients, survivors, health professionals, nine medical treatment organizations, two cancer services organizations, and the community in a unified effort to support young people before, during, and after cancer. The AYA Unit's first major project was to create a hospital unit dedicated to serving AYA cancer patients. The AYA Unit at BSW Fort Worth is the first of its kind in the United States Having opened in May 2016, this unit provides our community a dedicated, age-relevant treatment environment for patients diagnosed with cancer between the ages of 18 years to 29 years old. It features uniquely designed rooms to meet the needs of patients and their loved ones. All staff in the unit are specially trained in adolescent and young adult oncology. In addition to clinical staff, a navigator and social worker are on hand to assist with psychosocial and financial needs. Together, we are dramatically improving care for adolescents and young adults battling cancer in our community for personal use. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year

Explanation Health or social club dues or initiation fees-The organization may reimburse eligible employees for dues for a health club and/or a social club where there is a bona fide business need for the membership. Such reimbursements are treated as taxable compensation to the extent any part of the membership is used

Return Reference	Explanation
	Process for determining compensation The organization, a controlled affiliate of BSW Holdings, recognizes that those chosen to lead the organization are vital to its ongoing success and growth Thus, it must attract, retain and engage the highest quality officers and key employees to lead the organization and help the organization maintain its national reputation for achieving high targets for medical quality, patient safety, and patient satisfaction. A significant portion of the organization's officers and key employees' total compensation is based on significant performance achievements. This strategy places a greater emphasis on the importance of the organization achieving targeted improvements in the areas of people, quality, patient satisfaction and financial stewardship, annually. Total executive compensation is part of an integrated talent management strategy developed by the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and its Compensation and Governance Committee (C&G Committee) to attract, motivate, and retain the best leadership resources for the organization Executive compensation is determined pursuant to guidelines outlined in the intermediate sanction rules under IRC Section 4958 including taking steps to meet the rebuttable presumption standard of reasonableness under Treasury Regulation 53 4958-6, as summarized below. When making compensation decisions, the organization compares itself to similar-sized, and structured businesses including other integrated health care service systems and other similar-sized organizations, both locally and nationally. The BSW Part I, Line 3 Holdings' Board of Trustees and C&G Committee, on behalf of the organization, works directly with an independent compensation expert(s) to identify reasonable and competitive market rates as well as provide an annual review of the total compensation of the system's top management officials and key employees The C&G Committee is made up of members of the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees, who are independent, community volunteers. Guided by the information provided by the independent compensation expert(s), the C&G Committee approves and recommends to the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees salary increases, earned incentives, and/or benefit offerings for the organization's President, other officers and/or key employees to be comparable to similar organizations for similar services and/or positions. Furthermore, the C&G Committee is charged with the responsibility of reviewing annually the major elements of the executive compensation program to assure designs remain consistent with the business needs, market practices, and compensation philosophy. As part of the decision making process, the C&G Committee will often meet in executive session to discuss and review recommendations made by the independent compensation expert(s) During the executive session no officer or key employee whose compensation is being reviewed is present during these discussions. All decisions are contemporaneously documented in the C&G Committee minutes which are timely reviewed and approved by the C&G Committee

Part I, Line 4b	In order to recruit and retain key talent, BSW Holdings and certain tax exempt affiliates (BSWH) offers a supplemental non-qualified retirement plan to eligible employees. The plan provides an annual benefit (based on a percentage of compensation) to the employee that is paid to the employee on a future date upon vesting in the plan. The following individual(s) participated in and/or received payments (noted in parenthesis) from BSWH's supplemental non-qualified retirement plan during the tax year. Amy Martin, Janice Whitmire and Steven Newton. Also, certain senior officers, as designated by BSW Holdings' governing body, are eligible to participate in a Long Term Incentive Plan that is designated to recognize key senior leaders value and contribution to BSWH as well as align their compensation to the long term strategy of BSWH. Performance targets are based upon a percentage of the participants base salary and are developed by independent third party expert(s) using market competitive data within the guides of reasonableness. The plan is based on BSWH's three-year performance against its peers, determined based on peer rankings or percentile rankings in quality, patient satisfaction and financial
