Multiply Globally, East-West is specifically focused on areas of unreached people groups or areas with no previous substantial form of evangelism, discipleship or church planting. We primarily seek to work through existing local partnerships by investing in and training nationals. There are many who desire to further the gospel and even plant new churches, however, they have never been provided with the tools or training to accomplish such a task. Therefore, our end goal is to provide nationals with the skills and resources necessary to plant rapidly multiplying churches. The church planting process begins with evangelism in new areas or seeking to partner with local believers in areas of existing work. Once these relationships are established, we provide training in evangelism and church planting, forming specific strategies for each individual about how and where to share one's faith, how many groups will be started, and how many leaders will be trained. Long-term accountability is provided through follow-up trainings, and those who demonstrate obedience are sent to areas of unreached peoples to evangelize and establish reproducible churches. The church planting efforts throughout each of our fields are unique, therefore requiring a distinct approach in each field of ministry. While some areas are still in the beginning stages of evangelism, others are experiencing rapid multiplication. Despite the many obstacles faced in various parts of the world, our on-site staff and national partners persist with diligence, desiring to engage the unreached with the saving grace of Jesus through reproducing churches.
