990 Schedule A, Supp	emental Information
Return Reference	Explanation
Supported Organizations - IV, Section A, Line 1	The governing documents of Texas Health Resources (THR) do not list all supported organizations by name. The documents specifically list Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Dallas, Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Fort Worth and Texas Health Arlington Memorial Hospital. The documents also allow THR to support other hospitals and health care delivery organizations which are closely related in purpose or function through common control, owners hip, and/or management. THR has not specifically listed the names of all supported organizations to ease the administrative burden of updating the governing documents when new hospitals are added to the system or when an entity changes its name.

Return Reference	Explanation
Additional Support - Part IV, Section A, Line 6	Texas Health Resources (THR) provides minimal support to various national charitable organ izations such as the March of Dimes, American Heart Association, and others who perform an activity that is in line with THR's charitable mission. They also provide support to loca I schools, city wide activities, and community development groups. As a large healthcare s ystem in North Central Texas, THR takes an active role in the communities they serve. In doing so, THR makes donations, largely at the direction of the supported organizations, to various groups, or sponsor activities that benefit the community. The support to each group is minimal, and is not the organizations primary source of support.

990 Schedule A. Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Working Relationship-Part IV, Section D, Lines 2	THR is the controlling "parent" organization of a large health care system in North Texas THR serves as a functionally-integrated supporting organization to all the controlled sup ported organizations providing centralized management. THR appoints or approves the board members of each controlled entity within the system. The current THR board members also se rve on the board of each wholly owned hospital within the system. THR officers serve on th e Boards of the controlled entities as well as some non-controlled entities in the system. Systemwide policies and standards are established by THR. The system investment policies are established at the THR level. THR approves the operating budgets, capital budgets, and

Return Reference	Explanation
Substantial Direction-Part IV, Section E, Line 3b	As discussed in detail in the explanation to Schedule A, Part IV, Section D, Line 3, THR is the parent organization providing centralized management to the supported organizations in the system. As the parent organization THR is able to exercise a substantial degree of direction over the supported organizations through control of the board, setting policies, hiring officers, and the use of the authority matrix. Officers of THR are present at boar directings of the supported organizations as a liaison and provide a conduit for the supported organizations to voice opinions and concerns to THR.

Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1 - Details Texas Health Resources (THR) is the parent organization for a healthcare system consisting of hospitals and of Lobbying Activities other related healthcare organizations. The amount of expenses paid, or incurred in connection with lobbying activities reported on this return represent the expenses incurred on behalf of THR and all its affiliates. Total expenses for the system were $4,488,937,000 for the year ended December 31, 2018 Of this amount $1,551,202(03%) is used in connection with lobbying activities. Officers and/or Board members of THR may, to an insubstantial degree, make comments or statements concerning legislation that may affect either the healthcare industry or the health status of the communities that THR serves. In pursuing this activity, officers and/or Board members may engage in conversations and/or write letters to various federal, state, and local officials regarding such matters on a personal level, and not as a representative of the organization A portion of the dues paid to Healthcare Associations are used by these organizations to > support lobbying activities related to the healthcare industry. The amount of time and money involved in the activities described above is negligible. In no case has either THR, or any person acting on behalf of THR, intervened in any political campaign. THR policy prohibits this type of activity for THR System employees

Part I, Line 3 - Investments	THR has a wholly owned captive, Grace Indemnity Company SPC, Ltd (Grace), domiciled in the Grand Cayman Islands. This entity is used to pay claims for the self-insured activity of the THR system. Although Grace is domiciled offshore, its investments are primarily in US government securities and US investment grade corporate bonds, all of which are custodied in Chicago, Illinois. While the majority of the investments held by Grace are not offshore, Grace does have a minimum balance that is maintained in a Grand Cayman bank account and used for operating purposes. A target maximum balance of uninvested cash of approximately $100,000 is in maintained in this off-shore fund. As part of a diverse portfolio, THR recently began exploring alternative investment opportunities including certain investments which have foreign activity. THR maintains a minority interest (not more than 10%) in these alternative investments.

Explanation Return Reference Texas Health Resources (THR) receives various requests from the community for assistance THR management reviews these requests to verify that they are benefiting Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Grants the community and they are in agreement with THR's mission. The grants or assistance given by THR are generally to local organizations that have a longstanding record of benefiting the local community. Since the vast majority of the assistance given by THR is to local organizations, management is able to monitor the use of the funds using personal inspection. Many of the events are published in the local paper. Many are community wide events where THR employees attend, or work as

990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - Form 990 Filing	The Texas Health Resources (THR) tax department staff prepares the Forms 990 for THR and a ll of its wholly controlled affiliates. In order to accurately prepare the returns, the tax staff works closely with various other departments to gather and review the information needed to complete the return. The departments involved in this process include, but are not limited to accounting, finance, treasury, human resources, payroll, legal, governance, and corporate compliance. The returns are then reviewed twice within the tax department be fore being given to the Financial Reporting department to review and to ensure that the financial information is accurate and up to date. All THR System Forms 990 are provided to members of the Audit and Compliance Committee of the THR Board, giving them an opportunity to review, comment and ask questions regarding the Forms 990. The tax department Vice President provides an overview presentation to the committee highlighting various areas of the Form 990. A resolution to approve all of the returns is voted upon at this meeting. Once the Audit and Compliance Committee has approved the returns, each return is then reviewed and signed by the Chief Accounting Officer/Assistant Secretary. The members of the governing Boards are provided a copy of the Form 990 for their respective entity after the Audit and Compliance Committee approval process and before the Form 990 is filed.

990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Conflict of Interest	Texas Health Resources (THR) has adopted a Conflict of Interest Policy that applies to THR and all of its wholly owned or wholly controlled affiliates. During the first quarter of each fiscal year, a Duality and Conflict of Interest Statement Form is distributed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer to all board members, officers, contracted medical directors, employees with a title of manager or above, employed physicians, and certain committee me mbers and other employees based upon function. All disclosed conflicts are reviewed by the THR Chief Compliance Officer. A report, listing each reported Duality of Interest or Conflict of Interest is given to both the Chair of the Governing body and the President of the Corporation with which the reporting person is affiliated. The THR Board of Trustees rece ives a report when the Annual Disclosure process is complete. Progressive corrective action is taken for any identified noncompliance which may include removal from a board or committee or physician/employee counseling if the person fails to provide the disclosure. In a ddition, THR monitors physician payments through a public database implemented by CMS. Man agement plans are executed as needed based upon disclosures. THR also educates the Boards and workforce annually through either a web based or live compliance training.

to deliver cost effective quality medical care to residents of north central Texas. THR provides direction and oversight to its wholly owned affiliates through centralized services. They also provide oversight for the controlled joint ventures. As an integral part of providing centralized services to the affiliates, THR Imaintains intercompany receivable/payable accounts, most of which do not fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13). The range of centralized services provided by THR include information services, managed care contracting, Human Resources, revenue cycle, billing and collections, patient access/admissions, legal, ltax, compliance, supply chain, quality, business development, insurance, treasury, marketing, general accounting, real estate services, coding, transcription and Istrategic planning. In addition, THR does daily cash sweeps of all controlled tax exempt entity cash accounts. As a result, THR has numerous daily transactions with controlled tax exempt entities, none of which fall within the scope of IRC Section 512(b)(13) A management fee is charged for the centralized services and reported on Form 990. Part VII. Section B as a professional services fee Transactions with related tax exempt organizations falling within the meaning of centralized services as described above, are not listed on Schedule R, Part V, Line 2
