Part II, Line 9: Organization Reporting of conservation easements.	Contributed conservation easements received are recorded as in-kind contributions based on the estimated value given up by the land owner by restricting the use of the property with an easement. Contributed conservation easements and conservation easements purchased with restricted donations bear no future benefit to the Trust, and are therefore expensed in the year they are acquired. The Trust capitalized the cost of purchased easements only when they are expected to be sold or otherwise result in some future financial benefit to the Trust.
