Name: St John's Foundation

Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The primary exempt purpose of St John's Foundation is to generate and provide support, financial and otherwise, that furthers the mission and ministry of our corporate member, St John's Lutheran Ministries, Inc., a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation Established in 1989, the purpose of St John's Foundation is to bring focus to fund-raising efforts, special campaigns, annual appeals, capital structures, special events and community relations These components have proven to be essential in serving to link the needs of the community of St John's with internal and external resources (Continued on Schedule O) St John's needs the financial support of those who share our vision of quality care to all people, regardless of their financial status Underlying that commitment is our Lord's passion to care and serve those that are most in need Through the prudent management of gifts, 2018 was a very successful year that allowed the Foundation to support the St John's mission of "providing living opportunities within nurturing environments of hope, dignity, and love" Support to Residents As a ministry of the church and a not-for-profit corporation, St John's is committed to providing a continuum of housing opportunities and supportive services primarily to the elderly St John's has made a commitment that no one will be turned away or asked to leave because of inability to pay We served 1,175 seniors on our campus here in Billings in 2018 and served an additional 1,229 seniors in outlying communities The below are examples of that service and support 1) Many residents are exhausting their financial resources sooner than anticipated The Annual Fund supports those residents who cannot meet their financial needs In 2018, resident subsidies included * $63,659 subsidy for Medicaid Waiver residents* $1,292 rent subsidy for non-Waiver residents,* $7,981 in subsidies for resident needs 2) One of the great works of St John's is our remarkable Pastoral Care program Spiritual support, worship, and bible study are at the heart of our ministry to residents In 2018, the Foundation provided $43,693 to support the cost of Pastoral Care activities across campus St John's believes we must provide our elderly residents with more than just room and board Accordingly, we have ministers and chaplains on staff to meet both the spiritual and emotional needs of our residents and staff 3) The majority of our residents are limited in their ability to leave campus and participate in meaningful activities The St John's Activities program provides entertainment, neighborly interaction and helps keep minds stimulated and healthy The Foundation provided $69,966 in 2018 to help cover the cost of our activities program This support allowed for funding trips to local attractions and shopping malls to give residents an opportunity to experience the community outside of the campus This funding also provided numerous games, videos, and events on site to stimulate the interests of our elderly 4) During 2014-2016, our fundraising efforts focused on the Legacy of Love (LOL) Campaign Total gifts of $467,021 were received to remodel the rooms of our dementia wing to improve the lives of our residents afflicted with this terrible disease by affording them a more functional living situation We began construction in 2015 and to date have spent $269,267 ($48,015 in 2018) remodeling these rooms 5) Fundraising efforts for 2018 focused on an expected $5-8 million Endowment Campaign, the majority of which is to support resident care Currently the campaign remains in the "quiet phase" before a later public rollout The majority of donors so far have been current and past Board members and upper management, contributing approximately $1 million (including pledges) to the campaign Support to Employees St John's employees are the heart and soul of our organization Many employees work in challenging environments, both physically and mentally They are providing 24 hour per day care for a very vulnerable population 1) The Foundation offers financial support to those staff members and their dependents who commit themselves to personal and career growth In 2018, the Foundation awarded 13 scholarships, consisting of tuition reimbursements, of $21,472 to employees continuing their education at an accredited two or four-year institution 2) Often times, through no fault of their own, employees may find themselves in an unexpected crisis At any time, an employee may seek the resources of the Employee Crisis Fund through the Pastoral Care department with no questions asked In 2018, 109 employees received $22,944 in support to help with such items as rent and utility assistance, prescription costs, vehicle repairs or school supplies for a child 3) At Christmas, those employee families who do not have the means to enjoy the season are "adopted" by other employees, through our Share the Joy program, and given food and gifts to insure that they too have a wonderful Christmas During 2018, co-workers adopted 32 employee families through this program Support to the Community St John's is a ministry serving more than just our staff and residents We are committed to serving our community and those communities around us in any capacity we can An example of that support is the Summer Concert Season The Foundation's signature event is the Summer Concert Series St John's presents seven free concerts for our residents and the outside community each summer, on our main campus, as well as at the Crossings and Wyndstone facilities From its humble beginnings in 1998 to a thriving series going strong for the last 21 years, the concerts have become a summer tradition for many It is common to have close to 2,500 music lovers each week at the concerts with an annual attendance of 12,000 people The Foundation relies on the support of volunteers, staff and sponsors to help ensure its success Direct costs, paid with sponsor contributions, allow the concerts to remain free for the community Concerts have expanded to the Crossings and Willows campuses in recent years Other Ministry Support Previously the St John's Foundation Board voted to distribute endowment earnings equivalent to 5-6% of endowment value annually, paid on a quarterly basis, to St John's Lutheran Ministries, Inc During 2018 the Foundation distributed $191,743 to St John's to help cover nursing home operating expenses, specifically the gap between our current cost of care and the Medicaid daily rate Lutheran Social Services (LSS) of Montana is another ministry of St John's LSS is committed to bringing hope to those in need with adoption support services These include birthparent counseling, adoptive family preparation, mental health counseling, search and reunion services, and post-adoption counseling Designated donations offset these costs In 2018, LSS served 358 individuals and had a role in the placement of seven children in forever homes St John's sponsors students, 105 in 2018, from local colleges for clinical learning on our campus In addition, we hold classes to train individuals interested in becoming a C NA We had 75 C NA class graduates in 2018 St John's continues to make a difference in the lives of families, residents, employees and our community every day St John's is a place where all people are recognized and celebrated as both givers and receivers of love, so the difference made in one person's life creates an enriching experience for someone else Without the wonderful support of the community and donors, St John's Foundation would not be able to exist St John's is truly grateful for the support given by talented and resourceful people that helps us remain one of the premier Senior Living and Long-Term Care facilities in the Northwest
