Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Genetic Rescue Tool Kit Revive & Restore advances the incorporation of genetic tools into standard conservation practice by bringing together academic and commercial organizations and the conservation practitioners working in the field Revive & Restore has three distinct roles as a convener, as a science coordinator, and as a funder advancing the necessary science to build a Genetic Rescue Toolkit for twenty-first century conservation Revive & Restore partnered with San Diego Zoo Global to identify areas of opportunities utilizing these new tools (including genome sequencing, cryopreservation, advanced reproductive technologies, and genome engineering) to protect endangered species in order to enhance genetic diversity, to build disease resistance, and to facilitate adaption to climate change

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Engineering Resilience Conference Revive & Restore organized a four-day conference aimed at identifying synthetic biology solutions to conservation problems caused by environmental change. A total of 43 experts from all fields of conservation came together to develop ambitious projects designed to alleviate the threat of invasive species, to further climate resilience, to confer disease resistance, or to develop stakeholder and community engagement. The resulting case studies were reefs for the future, next generation corals for tomorrow's reef, future-proofing biodiversity, restoring indigenous cultural stories, combating rapid Ohia death, saving Hawaii's forests, a world institute for synthesizing engagement. We were pleased to report that several of these case studies have since moved forward with funding.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Avian Genetic Rescue Avian de-extinction research has begun generating foundational science that could transform bird conservation. Many of the same technologies that will enable de-extinction are needed for endangered birds, in order to restore genetic diversity, create or enhance disease resistance, and facilitate adaptation to address genomic vulnerability to a changing climate. In 2017, Revive & Restore worked on developing the necessary technologies to facilitate both our de-extinction projects and the genetic rescue of endangered birds, including genome sequencing of the Peregrine. In addition, with a team of scientists at the University of California Santa Cruz, Revive & Restore concluded a four-year long analysis of passenger pigeon genomes, the results of which were published in Science.

11	Has the organization accepted a gift or contribution from any of the following persons?
a	A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in (b) and (c) below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b	A family member of a person described in (a) above?
c	A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2	Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

		Yes	No
1	Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2	Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3	By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.
