Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Foundation acts as trustee for various revocable and irrevocable trusts. These trusts are governed by the respective trust agreements, which generally provide for either an income stream or a future distribution of cash or other assets to the Foundation, in whole or in part, for a specified period or upon the occurrence of a specific event, respectively. If a trust is revocable, or if the maker of the trust reserves the right to replace the Foundation as the beneficiary of the trust, the Foundation records the assets placed in trust at fair value, with an equal and offsetting liability until such time the Foundation receives distributions from the trust in accordance with its terms. If the trust is irrevocable, the trust assets are recorded at fair value, and a related liability for future payments to be made to the specified beneficiaries is recorded at fair value using present value techniques and risk-adjusted discount rates. The excess of contributed assets over the trust liability is recorded as a temporarily or permanently restricted contribution until such amount is received via trust distribution and/or is expended in satisfaction of the restricted purpose stipulated by the trust agreement, if any, at which time temporarily restricted net assets are released to unrestricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets are transferred to the endowment. In subsequent years, the liability for future trust payments to the donor is reduced by payments made to the donor and is adjusted to reflect changes in the fair value of the liability at the end of the year. Upon termination of the trust, the remaining liability is removed and recognized as income. In addition, the Boise State Public Radio (BSPR), an operating division of the University, transferred assets to the Foundation for investment and management, which are included in amounts held in custody for others.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The intent of the endowment fund is to permanently maintain funds that are limited by donor-imposed restrictions that neither expire by the passage of time nor can be fulfilled or otherwise removed by action of the Foundation. The restrictions stipulate that resources be maintained permanently, but permit the Foundation to expend the investment revenues and gains generated through the invested funds with the purpose of providing distributions that will be used to provide scholarship and operating funds for the University and the Foundation.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is organized as an Idaho nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3), qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). The Foundation is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Foundation is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. Currently, the Foundation has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The Foundation believes that it has appropriate support for tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Foundation would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule F	Information provided on Schedule F relates to the Foundation's direct and indirect investments during the tax period. The Foundation has evaluated potential foreign filing requirements, and has filed respective forms. None of the Foundation's ownership interests in foreign corporations requires a Form 5471 to be filed for the tax period. In addition, the investment partnerships have properly filed Form 8621, or the underlying investments did not generate any unrelated business income triggering the filing of the form. Transfers of capital were all under the $100,000 threshold so Form 926 is not required.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The vast majority of our scholarships and payments go to Boise State University. These distributions are made from the Foundation or through distributions from Bronco Athletic Association and Boise State University Alumni Association. We rely on the University's record keeping to make sure the scholarships and payments conform to their requirements. The Foundation awards certain scholarships directly, but remits the payment to BSU for those scholarships. The students self report and submit a FASFA to show that they qualify for the scholarships.
Form 990, Schedule I, Part III	Scholarship recipients are tracked via a database. The athletic scholarships are provided by the compliance team.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Conflict of Interest policy covers Directors, Officers, all employees, and others who can influence the actions of the Foundation. Determinations are made by the Board or a committee of the Board, if appropriate. The Board or Executive Committee will determine whether a conflict exists, and, in the case of an existing conflict, whether the contemplated transaction may be authorized as just, fair, and reasonable to the Foundation. The decision of the Board or Executive Committee on these matters will rest in their sole discretion, and their concern must be the welfare of the Foundation and advancement of its purpose. If a conflict of interest were to arise involving a member of the Board or Executive Committee, the individual is required to recuse themselves from voting on the issue.
