Explanation

Part III, Line 4

The Academy maintains a small art collection consisting of items donated to the school. In cluded in this collection is a series of photogravuers, a flemish tapestry, and several or I paintings (including portraits of Mr. & Mrs. Simms, major donors to the Academy). The art collection is currently displayed in various venues across campus for the edification of our students as well as for the enjoyment of vistors of our campus. It is anticipated that titems within the collection will grow in value over time and may eventually be sold to support various programs and initiatives benefiting the Academy's students. During the fisc all year ended June 30, 2019, the Academy did not receive any new donations of art, historical treasures or similar assets that were added to its existing art collection.

Part V, Line 4	The Academy's endowment, consisting of permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and quasi-endowment funds, provides vital financial support for the overall mission of the Ac ademy. The endowment sustains opportunities of remarkable scope, including experiential and doutdoor education, deep academic excellence, global exchanges and languages and sustaina bility initiatives closely attuned to a changing world. These programs make the student experience here one of the broadest in independent education. The endowment also supports our admission process and generous financial assistance program. These programs are committed to providing access to the Academy for students of talent and character from throughout the city, region, and (at times) country as they seek an enriched and meaningful education all experience. The Academy's endowment supports our outreach programs to include. Community Academy lectures, Charger Aquatics, Summer Session, and artistic, athletic, and voluntee revents on campus all exemplify our community outreach and the Academy's belief in life-ling ong learning.

Supplemental Information
Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Academy is a not-for-profit organization and qualifies as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) As such, the Academy is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) except on net income derived from unrelated bus iness activities. For the year ended June 30, 2019, the Academy has determined that no mat erial income taxes are due for its activities. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded in the accompanying financial statements. Management annually reviews it is tax positions and has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition in the accompanying financial statements. The Academy files informational tax returns. In the normal course of business, the Academy is subject to examination by federal, state, local, and foreign jurisdictions, where applicable. As of June 30, 2019, the tax years that remain subject to examination by the major tax jurisdictions under the statute of limitations for the Academy are from the year ended June 30, 2015 and forward. The Academy would recognize accrued interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses. There were no such interest or penalties recorded for the year ended June 30, 2019.

Students applying for a study abroad rogram do so through School Year Abroad (SYA), a 501(c)(3), unaffiliated to the Academy. SYA has its own application process and facilitates placing students for a ear abroad. Students applying through SYA may apply for financial assistance. SYA uses School and Student Services (SSS) for students applying for financial ssistance. SSS is utilized by independent schools nation wide in assisting in the determination of financial assistance awards. In the event that a student qualifies for ssistance, the Academy funds a portion of the overall assistance amount. SYA notifies the Academy when a student has qualified for financial assistance and provides a illing statement for the portion owed by the Academy.

In September 2010, the Academy requested the Village of Los Ranchos de Albuquerque, New Mexico issue $36,000,000 of Series 2010 bonds (i) for the purpose of refunding Series 1999 bonds and Series 2002 bonds and paying the costs associated with the termination of a swap agreement entered into in connection with the Series 2002 bonds and (ii) to finance the acquisition, installation and construction of certain infrastructure projects on the Academy campus. The Series 2010 bonds were issued at a premium of $1,303,574, resulting in total proceeds of $37,303,574. The Series 2010 bonds provided $6,043,078 in proceeds to fund updates to fire alarm and smoke detection systems and replacement of electrical load centers and motor control centers in original campus buildings, replacement of buried hot water and chilled water loop lines on the central and east campus, replacement of buried hot water loop lines on the west campus and replacement of existing west campus roof top HVAC units with roof top air handling units with chilled water coils and an air cooled chiller system and renovation of classroom buildings and fixtures, including classroom technology upgrades. In September 2013, the Academy completed all of its capital improvements and utilized all of the funds that were originally set aside in the Series 2010 issue. The Series 2010 bonds also provided $1,098,000 in proceeds to terminate swap arrangements that had been

Form 990 - Part III - Line 1 - Organization's Mission	We believe that children's lives change when their natural passion for learning is nurtured and transformed into habits of life-long learning and reflection. We believe that the world changes as these children learn to serve country and community with wisdom, conviction, and compassion. In light of these beliefs. We serve students of talent and character, offering them an education that broadens their perspective, sharpens their minds, strengthens their bodies, and engages their hearts. We commit to creating a caring, inclusive, and just community, using the geography and culture of our home in the Southwest to enrich our educational programs and to foster creativity, personal balance and a connection to the natural world. We devote our resources to ensure economic accessibility to our students and to support the wider community through outreach and community service. We entrust this mission to our graduates and successors as we preserve our resources and serve the children of generations to come.

Form 990 - Part III - Statement of Program Accomplishments	The Academy opened its doors in the fall of 1955 with 12 boys in grades 7 through 9, two teachers, and founding Head William Wilburn Classes were held in rented space in the Parish Hall of St. Michael's and All Angels Church. In 1957, enrollment had grown to 75 boys and the school moved to a 27-acre site on north Edith Boulevard in Albuquerque, NM. The first class of seven boys graduated in 1960. In 1966, the school moved to its present location, and in 1967/68 was home to 405 boys. Girls were admitted beginning in 1973. For the school year 2018/19, the Academy served 1,149 girls and boys in grades 6 through 12. The Academy's remarkable growth was made possible largely through the transformational gift of Albert G. Simms, a New Mexico financier and rancher, and his wife, Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms. In the early 1960's the Simms gave or bequeathed to the Academy (in trust) more than 12,000 acres of undeveloped land and 8,000 shares of Albuquerque National Bank stock. The undeveloped land has been sold resulting in the endowment that today enables education in a beautiful and uplifting environment, and also has provided the school its campus. The uniqueness of the Academy is due, in large part, to its commitment to its admission policy, and to providing accessibility to qualified students from throughout the greater. Albuquerque community. Every Academy student benefits from the school's commitment to accessibility and affordability. Direct support from the endowment covers approximately 25% of the cost not covered by tuition. A further commitment of the Academy is to diversity and dedicating the school's resources to creating an environment in which all students can thrive. It is the responsibility of all the school's constituents to make this environment conducive to learning and to foster mutual respect for one another. Students of color (including students of Middle Eastern, Hispanic, African American, Asian, and Native American ancestry) represented approximately 53% of the total student population for the 2

Form 990 - Part III - Statement of Program Accomplishments	Summer Program The Academy summer session offered the opportunity to 1,829 children of the greater Albuquerque community (most non-affiliated with the regular school year) to part icipate in an enriching and exciting summer experience during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019. The program had 274 class offerings including early childhood programs, a day camp, various sports camps and swim instruction for children from preschool to high school. C redit classes in math and science are also offered to high school students. An integral part of the session is the Multicultural Summer Honors Program, a summer scholarship program for academically talented and motivated African American, Native American, Hispanic, and other students who will be entering the fourth and fifth grades. The summer program has be en an integral part of the Academy since 1984, reinforcing the school's unique mission of accessibility, affordability, excellence and outreach. The program also builds a broader sense of community as summer students and their siblings, as well as children of faculty and alumni, return summer after summer. The session is staffed by qualified and talented ind ividuals who come from throughout New Mexico and the wider national and international educ ational community. The teacher/student ratios for the summer session offered for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019 were 1.5 for the day camp, 1.8 for the children's workshop, 1.1.2 for pre-grade 1, 1.13 for pre-grade 2-3, and 1.15 for all other programs offered. Community Builders. Community outreach is an important aspect of the Academy's mission. The scho ol is deeply committed to making a positive impact on the greater Albuquerque community, the state of New Mexico and beyond. Outreach initiatives are abundant and community service is part of the curriculum at all grade levels. Each year students undertake projects at numerous non-profit organizations in the community. Community Builders is a tuition free program that gives students from the Academy and other area sc

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by the Academy's Controller with a review by the Academy's Chief Financial Officer and by an external tax preparer. The Board of Trustee's Audit & Risk Committee members with Academy employees (Head of School and Chief Financial Officer) review the form in detail prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Trustee members utilize this time to ask questions, clarify data and make suggestions for any changes. Any agreed upon changes are incorporated into the Form, with a final review undertaken by the Controller and the Chief Financial Officer. The Form is submitted electronically to the IRS in a timely manner. The Board of Trustees receive the Form 990 prior to the filing of the return. The Academy values those few donors who request that they remain anonymous to the community. To that end, to protect such donors and keep the school's promise that their identity will not be widely known, Schedule B of Form 990 is not provided to all Trustees of the Academy. All other portions of the Form 990 are provided to all Trustees. To be sure the board is aware of gifts and to protect the organization from the potential of inappropriate gifts to the school, the Board Chair, Head of School, Chief Financial Officer, and Director of Advancement are fully aware of the identity of all donors. Should any one of them determine that a donation might be inappropriate or pose a conflict with the organization, they are charged with raising the issue with the full board. The Academy publishes a comprehensive giving report on an annual basis that is available to the public.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest statement is directed to the Trustees, officers, those who make purchasing decisions, all persons who are described as management personnel and to anyone who has proprietary information concerning the Academy Each employee must sign a statement annually which affirms such person has received a copy of the conflict of interest policy, has read and understands the policy and has agreed to comply with the policy. The conflict of interest statement requires that individuals refrain from voting or participating in any matter or issue in which they have any potential conflict of interest. This is to ensure the Academy operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status. Periodic review shall, at a minimum, include whether transactions between employees and the Academy are negotiated as the result of "arm's length bargaining and whether partnerships, joint ventures and any other business arrangements with the school are properly recorded. Transactions are further reviewed to ensure they reflect reasonable investment or payment for goods and services, they further charitable purposes and they do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or any excess benefit transaction. Accounting and other personnel are encouraged to report a situation involving a potential conflict of interest to an appropriate school official.

Form 990 - Part VIII - Statement of Revenue - Line 2d	The Academy's audited financial statements net financial assistance awarded against gross tuition revenue. For the fiscal year ended 2019, the Academy awarded assistance to 259 students. The assistance we award is a reduction to the total cost of tuition. We do not provide cash or non-cash awards. Financial assistance is awarded based solely upon demonstrated financial need. A family's need is assessed annually through a comprehensive screening process. The annual process requires that the family complete an application and provide the Academy with a full set of tax returns including all supporting schedules. To determine the appropriate financial assistance, the Academy utilizes a standard methodology provided by School and Student Services ("SSS") which is used by Independent Schools nationwide. This methodology calculates a contribution for each individual family based upon the family's specific financial situation and discretionary income. Prior to making an award, each applicant's file and proposed award is carefully reviewed by a committee to ensure the decisions are based on consistent application of need based criteria. Assistance is awarded to students as a reduction in their tuition, lunch fees, and/or other academic fees. No cash is distributed to recipients. The Academy awarded zero non-cash assistance for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2019. Financial assistance is awarded annually consistent with the current academic school year. Applicants must reapply annually by submitting a new application and current tax documentation. In addition to a committee review of each award, the Financial Assistance Office of the Academy conducts a random audit of files annually as another measure to ensure that financial assistance is being awarded appropriately and the proper supporting documentation was submitted as part of the application process. On a monthly basis, the Accounting Office of the Academy compares the financial assistance subsidiary ledger postings to a list of awards provided by the Financial Assi
