Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☐

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Westminster College is a private, independent college dedicated to student learning. We are a community of learners with a long and honored tradition of caring deeply about students and their education. We offer liberal arts and professional education in courses of study for undergraduate, selected graduate, and other innovative degree and non-degree programs. Students are challenged to experiment with ideas, raise questions, critically examine alternatives, and make informed decisions. We encourage students to accept responsibility for their learning, to discover and pursue their passions, and to promote more equitable and sustainable communities. Our purposes are to prepare students to lead lives of learning, accomplishment, and service and to help them develop skills and attributes critical for success in a diverse and interdependent world. We promote distinctive approaches to engaged learning that emphasize theory and practice in our academic and co-curricular programs. Grounded in

Part X FIN48 Footnote	The College has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization that is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code on its income other than unrelated business income. The College has also been recognized by the State of Utah as an organization exempt from state income taxation except to the extent of unrelated business income. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in the financial statements. As required by US GAAP, the College has identified and evaluated its significant tax positions for which the statute of limitations remain open. The open tax years are the years ended June 30, 2015 through June 30, 2018 for federal tax purposes and Utah tax purposes. The College applied the more likely than not criteria to all tax positions and determined no material unrecognized tax benefits or liability should be recognized. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits as of June 30, 2018, and it is not expected that there will be a material change in the 12 months following June 30, 2018. There have been no related tax penalties or interest which would be classified as a tax expense in the statement of activities.

The College also prohibits complicity, false reporting, and retaliation under this policy. In addition, the College prohibits sexual assault, sexual and gender-based harassment, gender-based discrimination, sexual exploitation, interpersonal violence, and other conduct that violates Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) or the Colleges obligations under the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) and the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act). Those categories of prohibited conduct are governed by the Colleges Policy on Sexual Assault, Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment, Gender-Based Discrimination, and Interpersonal Violence (Title IX Policy), which also establishes separate procedures that outline reporting options and explain how the College assesses, investigates, and resolves reports of such prohibited conduct against students and employees. The Title IX Policy and related procedures supersede any conflicting information contained in this Equal Opportunity Policy or its related procedures with respect to the conduct the Title IX Policy specifically prohibits. Where a complaint alleges conduct that may violate this policy and other conduct that may violate the Title IX Policy, the Title IX coordinator will determine how the reports should be addressed. Education Policy (as presented in the academic catalog) Westminster College administers all of its educational programs, related support services, and benefits in a manner which does not discriminate against students or prospective students with regard to race or ethnicity, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identification, disabilities, genetic information, or status as a veteran, or any other category or classification protected by applicable federal, state, or city laws. The admissions application, scholarship application, academic catalog, class schedules and all other materials sent to prospective students and members of the general community served by the College include the Colleges statement as noted above. Westminster College complies with federal and state non-discrimination laws and will not discriminate in admission and financial aid.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	The costs of providing the college's various programs and other supporting services, including foreign transactions, have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services. We are not required to show foreign transactions separately for financial statement reporting purposes. The method used to account for the total expenditures by region included an evaluation of all expenses that included a cross border transaction fee and an accumulation of total expenditures related to undergraduate and graduate academic/international trips.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Westminster College is responsible for the compensation review and approval process for officers and key employees. Review of the President: The Executive Committee is responsible to conduct an annual evaluation of the President, and to review and make recommendations regarding the terms of contract with the President, including compensation. The Executive Committee will conduct an annual review of the President's compensation. Concurrent with this review, the Executive Committee shall evaluate an annual report of the President's performance, provided by the President. In forming a recommendation regarding the President's compensation, the Executive Committee will rely on comparability data of the compensation paid to Presidents by similar institutions. This data may include compensation studies by independent organizations, written job offers for positions at similar organizations, and information obtained from the IRS Form 990 filings of similar organizations. The Executive Committee will forward its recommendation to the full Board of Trustees for approval of the President's compensation and contract terms. Review of Other Officers and Key Employees: On an annual basis, the President will present to the Executive Committee his or her report on compensation for the provost, vice presidents, presidents cabinet, and any other staff who report directly to the President, and covered employees (collectively Executive Officers) including comparability data and performance information. The Executive Committee is responsible to oversee the compensation of the Executive Officers to ensure compensation is fair, effective, and reasonable. Documentation: The Executive Committee will take and keep minutes that document its review process and how it formed its recommendations. The minutes will include the following: 1 The terms of the compensation and contract terms and the date it was recommended, 2 The members of the Board of Trustees who were present during the meetings and who voted on the recommendation, and 3 The comparability data obtained and reviewed and the source of the data. The Board of Trustees will take and keep minutes that document its actions. The minutes will include the following: 1 The terms of the compensation and contract terms, 2 The date the compensation and contract terms were approved, and 2 The members of the Board of Trustees who were present during the meeting and who voted on the approval.
