Name: UTAH HUMANITIES COUNCIL

Form 990 (2019)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The mission of Utah Humanities(UH) revolves around offering first-hand, engaging humanities experiences. Our events are direct, personal opportunities to identify with literature, to understand local and national heritage, and to share viewpoints in civil conversations...all of which serve to strengthen the fabric of our personal and community relationships. We offer connection, context, and courage. We work with partners to extend our reach and deepen our work. In fact, everything we do at Utah Humanities is in collaboration with other organizations. Aligning with cultural, educational, professional, and service organizations is essential to fulfilling our mission, and partnering with us can result in measurable community improvement. Our statewide work at UH is divided into Centers, each of which has a specific humanities focus and associated programs. It is through our Centers that we partner with Utah organizations to improve communities through the humanities. The Centers are the Center for the Book, the Center for Community Heritage, the Center for Educational Access, and the Center for Local Initiatives.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

In 2020, UH was honored to provide rapid-response emergency relief funding from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) to redistribute to Utah nonprofits with humanities programs as part of the Federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES) legislation. 35 Organizations across the state benefited from this program. All CARES funds were re-granted to Utah cultural nonprofit organizations with the exception of $1,813, which was used for expenses directly related to the administration of the CARES grants.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Utah Humanities awards modest grants to nonprofit organizations for public humanities programs. Grants are designed to support projects that directly involve the humanities in engaging a community for the purpose of improving it. We are a proud supporter of local communities, grassroots activities, tradition, and innovation. Our grants provide invaluable financial support to help bring educational programs, interpretive exhibits and activities, local history projects, oral history projects, media projects, and more around the state of Utah.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 1	UH keeps careful and accurate records of grants and awards given. See explanation and procedures detail related to Part 1, line 2 for more detail.
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	All grant and fellowship applicants are required to describe the planned use of funds in detail. Awardees are required to: 1. Set up a separate account number or financial tracking system for each project using UH grant funds. All UH grant funds and other funds committed to the project should be received into and expended from this account. Financial records must demonstrate that UH grant funds have been spent only for the approved project. 2. Documentation of all expenditures: Accounting records must be supported by such source documentation as canceled checks, bank statements, invoices, paid bills, donor letters, time and attendance records, activity report travel reports, and contractual and consultant agreements. Financial records must be retained including supporting documentation, statistical records, and other records pertinent to the grant for no less than three (3) years after the project concludes, or they may be sent to UH with the final reports. Financial records must adequately identify the source and application of funds, including obligations, unobligated balances, assets, liabilities, expenditures, and income. Records that relate to audits, appeals, litigation, or the settlement of claims arising out of the performance of the grant project shall be retained until such issues are resolved. 3. Cash and In-Kind Match: Awardees must show a total match at least equal to the UH grant award. In-kind contribution records should indicate source, date, purpose, cost-basis, and dollar value. 4. Funds are to be spent only as outlined in the application approved by the UH board. Adjustments may be made among approved line items, if the changes don't alter the project. 5. A budget line item may not be eliminated without written UH approval. The desired changes must be requested in writing before grant funds are committed or expended. UH grants and fellowships are only awarded in the United States.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The UH Executive Committee has the opportunity to review FORM 990 and reports to the full board of directors any items they recommend for discussion.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	UH regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy. Board members sign a pledge to abide by the policy, and conflicts are identified prior to every grant review session and any investment decisions.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Board of Directors of Utah Humanities conducts a regular review for the Executive Director. This process helps ensure the Executive Director and UH are functioning at the highest level possible. 1. The Chair is designated as the point person to initiate and conduct the evaluation of the Executive Director. In doing so, the Chair shall serve as a neutral and confidential conduit for the distribution, receipt, compilation and summary of the evaluation results. 2. The Board seeks evaluations and comments about the Executive Director from board and staff members in September and October each year. 3. The Chair compiles the results and associated comments from the completed evaluation forms and anonymize summaries from the staff for presentation to the Executive Director and the Executive Committee. 4. The Executive Committee reviews the results Executive Session in October. In addition, the Executive Committee reviews the evaluation tool, and if necessary, edits for the following year and recommends the ED salary for the upcoming fiscal year. 5. The Chair meets with the Executive Director to develop goals for the coming year. Goals, compensation, and any action recommendations will be shared with the full board at the fall meeting for approval. 6. At the conclusion of each year's evaluation, the Chair shall destroy all received staff evaluation forms, retaining only the prepared summaries. The Executive Director recommends staff compensation amounts to the Executive Committee annually, as part of the proposed budget presentation, and provides comparability data annually from their national membership association and the Utah Nonprofits Association. The Executive Committee's decisions are summarized in meeting minutes.
