Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Community Health Alliance is a private not-for-profit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in the accompanying financial statements. The Organization files a United States federal tax return. The Organization has determined that its major tax jurisdiction is the United States. The tax years of 2013 through 2016 remain open and subject to examination by the appropriate government agencies in the United States and Nevada. In order to account for any uncertain tax positions, the Organization determines whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position, assuming the taxing authority has full knowledge of all information. If the tax position does not meet the more likely than not recognition threshold, the benefit of the tax position is not recognized in the financial statements. As of and for the year ended June 30, 2017, there was no income tax expense, tax penalties, or interest related to tax penalties recorded by the Organization in the financial statements. The Organization is required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS annually. In addition, the Organization is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to its exempt purpose. The Organization has determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990T) with the IRS.
