Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12C	The organizations conflict of interest policy requires that all potential transactions with interested persons (officers and board members) be fully disclosed to the board of directors prior to deciding to make such a transaction. Should a transaction arise that involves an interested person, the non-participating board members will review the transaction to determine if a potential conflict exists. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the organization can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to such a conflict. The organization reviews all such transactions before entering into the transaction to maintain compliance with the policy.
