Over 4.35 million shoppers continued to embrace Goodwill's wide selection and value pricing. By growing retail operations, Goodwill creates more jobs and funds more job training, responding to the increasing need in the communities we serve. Goodwill retail stores provide jobs and training opportunities in addition to generating funds for job training programs.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Donations and Production Training Centers - employed 278 people in the process of moving donated goods to the sales floor at Goodwill. From collection points at stores and Attended Donation Stations, goods need to be sorted, priced, and displayed. Work training opportunities abound in our training centers allowing ample opportunity for people with significant disabilities or disadvantages to move into the work force. Strict quality standards guide the selection of items not suitable for sale in the retail stores. Goodwill strives to recycle donated items not suitable for sale in the retail stores. Donations are the foundation of Goodwill's ability to provide services. Thoughtful giving supports strong retail sales which in turn helps people receive training and go to work.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Workforce Development Training Centers - employed 340 people. Over ninety percent of revenues are returned to jobs and job training programs for people who have disabilities or disadvantages. Workforce serviced an unduplicated 8,334 individuals. Programs range from financial literacy skills training, warehouse & logistics skills training, culinary and barista training, computer training for people with disabilities, and training on job search skills and work behavior. Placement (871 job placements provided) includes supported employment for people with developmental disabilities; employment placement programs include people with disabilities as well as people entering the workforce with other barriers such as welfare history and lack of work skills or behavior. Youth at Risk provided programs in construction trade and other summer programs. GED training provided to 455 individuals. Senior mature workers provided training in office and other skills. Veterans' services and training are provided to those who have served.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region receives restricted grants for programs and for scholarship gifts for clients that are disadvantaged and yet not eligible for government supported programs. Annually Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region reviews the funding available for scholarships and the nature and types that are provided. When the funding available is determined, case workers assess the assistance needs of program clients and submit a request for scholarship support which is approved or denied by the program manager. The use of funds is reported to the Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region Board monthly on the financial statements. For Subrecipient grants: Grants are prepared, reviewed, submitted, and signed by the subrecipient grantee and Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region. The grant agreement discloses the requirements of the grant. Billings for allowable expenses are submitted monthly by the subrecipient grantee. The billings are reviewed for qualification. Allowable expenses are paid to the subrecipient grantee. The total grant distributions are monitored on a monthly basis. Site visits by Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region are performed in order to audit program and fiscal adherence.

29 Number of Forms 8283 received by the organization during the tax year for contributions for which the organization completed Form 8283, Part IV, Donee Acknowledgement 29 1

	Yes	No
30a During the year, did the organization receive by contribution any property reported in Part I, lines 1 through 28, that it must hold for at least three years from the date of the initial contribution, and which is not required to be used for exempt purposes for the entire holding period?		No
b If "Yes," describe the arrangement in Part II.
31 Does the organization have a gift acceptance policy that requires the review of any nonstandard contributions?	Yes
32a Does the organization hire or use third parties or related organizations to solicit, process, or sell noncash contributions?	Yes
b If "Yes," describe in Part II.
33 If the organization did not report an amount in column (c) for a type of property for which column (a) is checked, describe in Part II.

Part II Supplemental Information.

Provide the information required by Part I, lines 30b, 32b, and 33, and whether the organization is reporting in Part I, column (b), the number of contributions, the number of items received, or a combination of both. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 32, Hire and Use of Third Parties	Vehicles and boats contributed to organization are collected by a third-party vendor and sold with the vendor collecting their fees out of the sale proceeds. Amounts reported for contributions reflect the selling price of each item. All fees are charged to expense.
Part I, Line 33, Revenues Not Reported	Goodwill of the Olympics and Rainier Region does not assign a value to donations of thrift items received, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. If Goodwill of the Olympics would have recorded the value of those donations on an annual basis, the estimated value of those donations would be approximately $36.06 million (net of cost of collecting and processing donated goods which was approximately $31.40 million).

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c: Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	The Board of Directors, CEO, and Senior Management Team annually complete and sign a conflict of interest statement of disclosure. The statement includes an acknowledgement that they have a duty to report a conflict of interest if one arises later in the year. Statements are reviewed by management to determine if any conflicts exist. If a conflict of interest is identified prior to decisions made by Board, Committees, CEO, and management staff, the person involved in the conflict of interest would be excluded from discussion and decisions regarding the conflict of interest item. If a conflict of interest is identified after a transaction has occurred, the conflict of interest item would be referred to the Board (for Board matters) or CEO and CFO (for management matters) for review and determination of corrective action. On a daily basis, the Accounting and Purchasing departments review transactions for potential conflicts of interest.
