Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The SELCO Community Credit Union Salary Administration Program methodology is designed to attract and retain top talent within the industry One component of the Program is the utilization of salary survey data which provides guidance in establishing appropriate salary ranges and in determining annual base pay changes Historically, the Credit Union Executive Society (CUES) Survey was used as a baseline for salary and compensation guidance for the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the Executive Team The number of participants reporting CEO salaries has declined to a level that this survey no longer provides meaningful data In lieu of relevant survey information, Human Resources compiles publically available Form 990 data to use for benchmarking This data includes only state-chartered credit unions since federally-chartered credit unions are excluded from the requirement to file an individual Form 990 The benchmark data is provided to the Board of Directors each January to be used as a general comparison and guidance Periodically, the Board may commission an external firm to provide benchmark data During the CEO Performance Evaluation process, the Board meets in Executive Session to discuss CEO performance, review compensation benchmark data, and establish the appropriate compensation level Compensation changes are documented in a Memo to the Payroll and Personnel file, which summarizes the meeting discussion and memorializes actions
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Governing documents and the conflict of interest policy may be made available upon request Annual financial statements are posted on the credit union's website and monthly statements are posted in each branch location
