Form 990 (2018)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

International Visitors Programs and International Training-The Organization coordinates professional visits and training programs to Oregon for over 500 current and emerging leaders from around the world each year. These visitors are top business, professional, cultural, and youth leaders, and promising emerging leaders. They are connected with their professional counterparts in Oregon for meetings, or come for week to month-long professional trainings. The visitors come through high-profile programs such as the U.S. Department of States International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP), and the USAID-sponsored Community Connections Program. While IVLP participants stay in hotels, the remaining groups often stay with local volunteer host families. The International Visitors Program enables cross-cultural conversations and facilitates professional knowledge exchange between Oregonians and the world. Up to 50 high school leaders visit annually from all over the world through U.S. Department of State youth leadership programs. These international youth engage with area youth leaders and stay with local volunteer host families in often their first exposure to international travel and U.S. culture.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

International Speaker Series-Part of the Global Conversations program, every year the International Speaker Series features prominent national and international figures who address the significant issues of the moment. Inaugurated in 2000 to celebrate the Organizations 50th Anniversary, the Series has become the nations premier speaker series focusing on international discussion and education. The Series brings audiences face to face with the global leaders, visionaries, and inspiring voices that are changing our world.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Global Classroom (formerly Education Programs)-The Global Classroom programs are the Global & Multicultural Resource Center, including Culture Boxes, Teach the World Educator Workshops and Youth Forums, and Young Leaders in Action. The Global Classroom enables K-12 educators to teach about the world by providing professional development and connecting them with materials, people, and creative learning resources, such as a library of over 100 Culture Boxes, lesson plans, and classroom curriculum about the most pressing global issues we face today. The Organization offers professional development training (Teach the World), speakers on international issues, networking opportunities for teachers and connections with students on international exchanges. An Educator Advisory Council helps provide teacher input to this work. The Young Leaders in Action program includes 20-25 students annually from area high schools who engage in leadership training, execute action plans and serve as ambassadors to their schools.

Conflict of interest policy compliance Part VI line 12c	When a new member joins the Board of Trustees, they are asked to confirm that they have no conflicts of interest through a statement and sign off on this. Each year, all Board of Trustees members are asked to complete the statement and reconfirm that they do not have any conflicts. The policy is reviewed by the Board of Trustees each year to ensure it is still current and relevant. The policy outlines procedures to follow once a conflict of interest is identified. The Board of Trustees will monitor and review the conflict and the conflicted person is not permitted to vote or be part of any discussion on conflicted transactions.
