| FORM 990 PART VI SECTION B POLICIES LINES 15A AND 15B | SWC Museum Corp. provides a compensation program to its executive leadership team designed to attract and retain key leaders who help the Museum deliver on its mission and ensure that we obtain and expend the resources we need to serve our mission and exempt purpose. To ensure that we adhere to the principles in our mission, the Board appointed a Compensation Committee to provide governance and oversight over the compensation of our senior executives, including the CEO. The Committee maintains a compensation philosophy for governance purposes over executive compensation. The Committee's philosophy is to compensate the executives fairly and competitively with market for comparable roles among similarly situated organizations. The Compensation Committee annually reviews the salaries and benefits of all employees and recommends the compensation and benefit level for all employees. The Compensation Committee from time to time takes into consideration salaries of other organizations and for the CEO, officers and key employees, the Compensation Committee reviews from time to time Form 990 of other similarly situated organizations. To ensure that the Committee has access to relevant market comparability in order to make its determination as to the reasonableness of compensation, the Committee may, from time to time, retain an independent consultant to evaluate the compensation provided to the executives and advise the Committee as to its reasonableness. The Committee did retain an independent compensation consultant most recently in August 2018. Upon completion of its study, the consultant provided its opinion to the Committee that the compensation provided by SWC Museum Corp. to the executives was competitive with relevant market comparability data and was reasonable. The recommendations of the Compensation Committee each year are reviewed by the Executive Committee of the Board and upon the recommendations being acceptable to the Executive Committee, are submitted to the Board for its approval and implementation. In addition, the Chairman of the Board or a Board member designated by the Chairman will discuss individually with the Chief Executive Officer the employee's performance during the past year. Pursuant to the conflict of interest policy, no individual whose compensation is being determined may be part of the compensation determination process. The decision-making process of the Compensation Committee is documented contemporaneously in its minutes. |
